VOTERS TO CHOOSE NEXT PRESIDENT TUESDAY

Park expansion rejected by 4 to 1 majority

Blame high tax bills for failure of bond issue to 'catch on'

Residents of Arlington Heights park district Tuesday voted down 4 to 1 the proposed $120,000 bond issue for expansion and improvement of the local park system.

In a record turn-out in which 1,007 persons cast ballots, 879 were "no" and 205 were "yes" with 12 spoiled ballots in Wheeling area. Elk Grove residents included in the park district voted 10 "no" and 1 "yes." Only 11 votes were cast from the Elk Grove precinct south of Central road.

HIGH TAXES and an organized opposition were the causes attributed by many for failure of the bond issue to meet voter approval. It was felt that since most local residents had paid the second installment of taxes a mere month ago, the park board request, which would mean added taxes next year, came "too quick," to be favorably received.

Robert M. Beatty, park board president, stated to Paddock Publications Wednesday: "The board submitted to the people what it thought was a complete park program for a number of years to come.

"The park board invites all organizations and clubs who will do so to organize, work for and support any further program they think the board should attempt in the future. Members will be more than glad to hear any recommendations advanced by these citizens.

"On behalf of the park board, I also wish to thank Paddock Publications for cooperation and counsel in presenting the park board election to readers."

"People just weren't in the proper frame of mind," one voter commented Wednesday morning. "After paying one tax bill, it would be a difficult job to convince them to add $3 or $4 to future tax bills."

ANOTHER said the bond issue failed not only because of tax bill installment-time, but because of the coming national election next Tuesday. "It just seemed people were disposed to vote against anything proposed by civic officials, whether on a national or local scale."

Voters interviewed at the polls Tuesday and on Wednesday felt it should be made clear the park board was to be commended for its farsighted action in planning for the future of the community.

MANY VOTERS approved sections of the 6-point proposal, but did not favor it in its entirety.

Turning thumbs down on the $120,000 bond issue does not mean Arlington Heights voters did not have faith in the park board's planning, they stated. The election came too near tax time, and called for "too much at one time."

They were reminded that due to the park board's foresightedness more than 15 years ago, the village acquired recreation park acreage and established such excellent playground facilities for Arlington Heights and area residents that an educational film, praising local park facilities, was made here this summer. The movie will be shown in schools and colleges and to civic-minded groups throughout the country during the next year.

Cardboard carton firm to operate on Mayfair site

New owners hope to start production in Dec.; to employ 50

Cornell Wood Products company of Chicago has purchased the former Mayfair Foods plant in Arlington Heights, it was announced Wednesday by Frank Osborne, company official.

The company will begin moving into the newly-acquired unit immediately, and hopes to begin manufacture of cardboard cartons within 30 to 60 days.

THE LOCAL plant will employ fifty people at the start of operations.

The question of a sufficient underpass entrance to the factory from Northwest highway, which had held up final purchase, was decided this week Cost of deepening the underpass to permit the company's trucks to use the entrance, will be paid for by the purchasing firm.

THE COMPANY had asked the village last week to pay $400 to $500 in engineering fees for deepening the underpass.

VILLAGE BOARD members at a special meeting Monday night refused to pay the $500 fees from village funds because four-fifth of construction work would be on non-village property. However, they agreed to pay engineering fees for the village's share of grading the factory roadway. This fee would amount to less than $100.

"The village isn't in a position to pay for improvements on private property," Mayor Goedke commented. "We have to use our funds for improved street lighting and other village projects.

The company previously had asked the village to provide a roadway, without cost to the wood products company, on Cleveland avenue, north of Central road. Cost to the village for proper grading would have been $3,500. The board refused the request, but offered to provide engineering services for grading the road.

The newly-purchased plant, which has 32,000 square feet of floor space, will be operated by Hummel and Downing company, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Cornell Wood Products company of Chicago, with mills at Cornell, Wis. The local factory will manufacture corrugated containers.

The Hummel-Downing company is a pioneer in the field of paperboard shipping containers and folding boxes and operates a complete unit of two paperboard machines and box manufacturing facilities in Milwaukee.

Set $2,500 goal for Girl Scout budget; drive starts Nov. 8

A $2,500 fund drive for Arlington Heights Girl Scouts will be conducted during the week of November 8 through 13.

Purpose of the drive is to solicit contributions to cover added administrative expenses for Girl Scout work in this community for 1949.

"Canvassing for all merchants and families in town will be done during the week by Girl Scout parents and other volunteers," Edward Schumacher stated. Schumacher and Al Kehe are in charge of the drive.

Last year's goal was $1,500, but added funds are needed this year to pay for a full-time professional director, Mrs. M. Vernig, who also does liasion work between local Girl Scouts and the national council, and to pay for Arlington Heights share of operation costs at Camp Pine. Since the camp was acquired last spring, its maintenance is a new item in the Girl Scout budget.

"Practically all the money solicited from residents will be spent in Arlington Heights" Schumacher asserted. Churches also will be asked to announce the drive in services November 7.

Girl Scout week, October 31 through November 6, will find 21 troops in Arlington Heights again joining more than a million and a quarter members of this organization celebrating the memory of Juliette Low, founder of the movement in the United States thirty-six years ago.

Mayor Goedke appeals for safe observance of Hallowe'en

In an appeal to the young people of Arlington Heights Mayor Goedke has requested the Herald to publish the following message:

"I hope the young people will have a most enjoyable Hallowe'en celebration, but please remember that no property should be destroyed. The young people of today are generally considered far more intelligent in their celebrations than several years ago, when in some cases much damage to property resulted from celebrating Hallowe'en.

"The parents of teen-age children are requested to cooperate in this respect," Mayor Goedke concluded. "Have a good time, but don't get into trouble by destroying your neighbor's property. I hope our excellent record will continue again this year and that no arrests will be necessary due to the destruction of property in Arlington Hts."

Village postpones widening of Douglas Avenue

Seek to widen Davis street to allow more commuter parking

The widening of Douglas ave., Arlington Heights, has been dropped temporarily as the first street-widening step by the village.

The decision to postpone actual construction was made at a special meeting of the board Monday night.

Board members felt that widening of loop street, especially Davis, would be more essential to the program and would provide a better solution to the commuter parking problem.

Aldermen Hartmann, Luehring and Kehe were appointed to contact Arlington Heights park board for use of park land along Davis.. No decision has been made yet as to which blocks will be widened along that street.

State approval for use of $15,000 in motor fuel tax funds for widening Douglas avenue had already been received from the state, according to Alderman Hartmann, but the board will appiy for a change in the designated street pending park board action.

Sees need for new high school building by 1950

Laurin reveals H. S. Dist. 214 is largest in suburban Cook co.

Arlington Heights Township high school district is not only the largest high school district in Cook county outside of Chicago, but a new building addition will be needed by 1950 to care adequately for student needs.

Parents who attended the high school open house last Thursday heard Elmer F. Laurin, high school board of education president, state that "enrollment and building expansion has far exceeded all surveys."

Laurin told the audience of almost 800 persons the present high school addition, completed this fall at a cost of $310,000, is now being used to capacity by 820 enrolled students.

Recent surveys have estimated high school enrollment will be 1,000 by 1955, "but from the looks of things, we will reach that figure easily by 1951," Laurin stated.

"The board of education is prepared to make arrangements for new buildings," he added, "whenever high school officials feel it is needed."

Through elections held this summer, high school district 214 now comprises all but two sections in Wheeling township, all Elk Grove township, and two sections in Palatine township, for a total of 72 sections or the equivalent of two full townships.

"THE TERRITORY added this summer increased the assessed valuation of the district by more than four million dollars," he revealed to the audience, "bringing the total evaluation to approximately $45 million dollars."

Laurin emphasized that, because of increased valuation, taxes may remain fairly stable, or at least show very little increase.

Inspirational community singing was led by William Boland, vocal instructor, after Boland led the audience in an ice-breaking game called "Horseshoe."

At 8:30 p.m. parents were dismissed to start rounds of 10-minute classes modeled after their childrens' schedules. At 10.20 p.m. classes were dismissed "for the day," and parents joined the cafeteria crowds for cake and punch.

Don't be a vote waster

With the national election in view for Tuesday, November 2, it would be well for voters to brief themselves on the correct way to mark a ballot.

Twelve ballots were spoiled at the park board election this week because voters made incorrect markings.

In a "yes" or "no" proposition, or on a ballot in which placing a mark in a box indicates a voter's choice, the "x" symbol is the only correct and legal mark to use.

A check mark is illegal and will void a ballot. Also, ballots which are marked "yes" or "no" instead of with an "x" will invalidate that person's vote.

All these incorrect markings were found on the 12 spoiled ballots Tuesday.

Don't be careless when you mark your ballot next Tuesday, and don't be in a hurry. Take your time. Designate your choice with the proper "x" mark and make sure your vote counts.

Large all-male cast set for 'Everybodys Here' next week

Don't be alarmed if you see a male acquaintance tripping down the street, clinging to imaginary skirts with one hand, and powdering his nose with the other — chances are the poor guy's a member of the "Everybody's Here" cast, the Lions Clubs' big show scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights of next week November 4-5-6 in the Arlington Heights High School Auditorium at 8:30.

The show, a follow-up of the "Womanless Wedding" presented by the Lions last year will feature another all-male cast. And once again residents will have an opportunity to see their local business and professional men cavorting about in high heeled shoes, evening gowns and curled wigs.

"EVERYBODY'S HERE" depicts an old "home-week" celebration. The scene is the town hall, where a reception committee greets the local and returned townspeople, as well as celebrities of the radio and screen.

Al Jasper will take the role of Mayor Doolittle who greets the guests, and Marvin Prellberg as Don Ameche will act as impromptu master of ceremonies. Other celebrities include Alice Faye (Dr. Howard Dunn) Al Jolson (John Randag) Bing Crosby (Dr. Morris Virnig) and Harry James (J. E. Bryson.)

Some of the highlights of the performance include the "Girls of the Gay 90's," who will twinkle their toes through a naughty number.

IN CONTRAST another group of men will appear as the "Girls of 1948" and come strutting out in the "new look."

Other attractions include Angelo and his trained bear — Old Uncle Joe in a mellow southern melody — a ballet, and other amusing skits.

The climax of the performance will be a beauty contest in which four men will parade across the stage before judges who will select the "Beauty Queen."

Approximately 50 men will have roles in the show and talent outside the Lions Club has been recruited.

Some of the men in the cast, in addition to those already mentioned are: B. L. Cochrane, Harry Siegel, Carl Ewert, Paul Immel, Wm. Lussman, George K. Volz, Edw. Carlisle, Fred Rascher, C. S. Becker, Edw. Wolf, Nickolas Lattof, Arthur Franzen, Aubrey Neville, Henry Nickols, Harold Hastings, Edw. Schmitt, Edw. Weidner, John Kindler, Joe Lohr, Park Allen, Charles Johnson, E. B. Stine, Wm. Reese, Stu Paddock, Herbert Kolle, Robert Wilke, Fred Jasper, Cliff Crane, Virgil Horath, David Zimmerman, Tony Koske, Roland Ackerman, Walter Kroeber, Norman Dewey, O. H. Wulbecker, Sylvester Greschner, W. C. Lathen. Floyd Burns, Roy Benson, Leroy Huebner and Joe Brehm.

Les Griffith will be the accompanist. Complete cast of characters will be announced later.

PROCEEDS will be used for the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and the Lions Community Fund.

Miss Iva C. Keefer of Pittsburg, Pa. is directing the production.

Tickets may be secured from Lions and cast members and are on sale at most business places. add everybody's here —

Two members added to the cast Wednesday morning are Wilbert C. Hartmann and Howard Voss. Both will portray beauty contestants.

PAINT WATER TOWER

Painters were on the last two legs on the village water tank near the field house Tuesday afternoon. It was the first paint bath the water supply tank had received in nine years.

The entire job took two weeks at a cost of $1,500 paid to James Hanlon and sons, Skokie.

The new paint job included two coats of aluminum paint inside and one coat outside, and re-lettering of signs.

See record turnout at 26 precincts; Arlington man on national slate

Whether or not rural Northwest Cook county will remain a Republican fortress will be determined next week when voters from Wheeling, Elk Grove and Palatine townships cast their votes in another Presidential election year.

Clerks of the three townships and towns included in this area expressed the belief they would see a record-breaking vote November 2 as citizens realized this election may mean a complete shift of party power in Washington. Election officials are prepared to handle the thousands of registered voters next Tuesday in the 26 precincts in this area.

Northwest suburban Cook county will do an unbelievable about-face Nov. 2 if the election results in this area do not reflect a usual 4 to 1 victory for Republican candidates.

All polling places will be open Tuesday, November 2, from 6 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Polling places are:

Wheeling township

1. Village of Wheeling. Polling place, village hall.
2. Polling place, service station corner, Arlington Heights and Rand roads.
3. Polling place, Poole's garage, 320 W. Northwest highway, Arlington Heights.
4. 305 W. Campbell, Arlington Heights.
5. Village hall, Arlington Heights.
6. Winkelmann's garage, 115 East Davis, Arlington Heights.
7. Presbyterian church, Arlington Heights.
8. Mayfair rug cleaners, 115 N. State, Arlington Heights.
9. Arlington Heights field house.
10. 6 N. Main street, Mt. Prospect.
11. St. Mary's Training school, Feehanville.
12. Allison service station, corner Milwaukee and Palatine roads.
13. Prospect Heights service station, corner Elmhurst and McDonald roads.
14. Bill's service station, State road and Park street.

Dewey, a popular figure in this area in 1944, did some last-minute stumping in Cook county at a political meeting Tuesday night in Chicago, where President Harry Truman, his opponent, gave forth with similar soapbox oratory Monday night.

Governor Green (R) is seeking re-election for that office for a third straight term. His opponent this election year is Democrat Adlai Stevenson.

In 1944 Green garnered a total of 7,258 votes from rural Cook county voters, whereas his opponent, Thomas J. Courtney received 2,252.

WILLARD C. WALTERS, (D), a local political son and resident of Arlington Heights for 13 years, will oppose Ralph E. Church (R), of Evanston, in the congressional race from the 13th district. Walters has lived in Cook county since 1922 and received a law degree from DePaul university in 1928. He was admitted to the Illinois bar in the same year.

Walters lives with his wife and three daughters at 519 S. Pine, Arlington Heights.

Edward J. Barrett (D), will be another familiar name to suburban voters next week. Although in 1944 the three townships of Wheeling, Elk Grove and Palatine gave him only 1,156 votes as compared to 7,125 for Arnold P. Benson (R), a Democratic landslide from Metropolitan Chicago gave Barrett the necessary votes for re-election.

Prohibitionists have chosen Claude A. Watson, of Los Angeles, as Presidential standard-bearer, and Socialists will once again bring out the bunting for perennial Norman Thomas. Edward A. Teichert, of Pennsylvania, is the Socialist Labor party's choice for White House resident.

VOTERS in 45 states, if they are so inclined, will be able to cast votes for Henry Wallace as Progressive party candidate for President. However, Wallace's name was knocked off Illinois ballots by a recent court decision, but Illinois voters will have the opportunity to vote for Progressive party candidates for state and local offices.

In 1944, Wheeling township recorded 3377 straight Republican tickets as compared to 1024 straight Democratic. A similar ratio in 1940 showed 2738 straight Republican votes and 946 straight Democratic.

Precinct No. 11 in Wheeling, known as Feehanville district, was the only one in 1944 to go Democratic, except that it gave ex-Mayor Charles Garland (R) a majority of 191 votes to 135 for his opponent, William W. Link, in the race for Representative to Congress (seventh district).

POLICE DANCE NETS $3,000

Net proceeds from Arlington Heights police sixth annual ball totaled more than $3,000, Chief Carl H. Skoog announced Wednesday.

Last year's net intake totaled approximately $2,600. The federal government will receive $517.20 in luxury taxes from the 6,465 tickets sold for the affair.

Another expenditure item of $595 for food, orchestra and prizes brought total expenses to $1,112.20.

Teachers to study and 'fly' Link trainer

A lecture and demonstration of a Link trainer, similar to the type used to teach flying during the war, will be held for Arlington Heights high school teachers and administrators and grade school teachers next week.

The air center clinic will be held in the high school band room Tuesday, November 2, at 3:30 p. m. for elementary teachers and Wednesday, November 3, at 3:15 p. m. for high school teachers.

AN INTRODUCTORY explanation will be given by William J. Konicek of air education division of Link Aviation, Inc., followed by a 30-minute class teaching demonstration. Sixth grade pupils from North school will be used in the Tuesday demonstration. Teachers also will have access to an exhibit of air age teaching materials.

Arrangements to bring the Link trainer demonstration to Arlington Heights were made by Nelson Lowry, head of the science department and director of visual education.

Newcomer is 11,000th subscriber

Mrs. William Craig, 103 S Owen, Mt. Prospect, was the 11,000th person to subscribe to one of Paddock Publications six newspapers.

The Craigs, who have lived in Mt. Prospect six weeks, moved here from Des Plaines and Chicago. They have one daughter, Susan, 5, who has just started kindergarten.

Mrs. Craig, a newcomer to Mt. Prospect, has already joined the PTA unit.

"We bought the Mt. Prospect Herald out of curiosity after we moved into our new home," she stated, "but found it so full of interesting home town news, we wasted no time in subscribing to it.

'I never dreamed our picture would be in the newspaper so soon after we moved in," she added.

LIBERTY RESTORED

A significant development on the American scene during recent years is the general observance of the Reformation festival. A day which for hundreds of years was celebrated chiefly by Lutherans has recently come to be recognized as a heritage which all Protestants have in common.

This is as it should be. For when Martin Luther nailed his 95 sentences to the door of the Castle Church of Wittenburg, October 31, 1517, challenging the ecclesiastical authorities of his day to a debate on controverted issues, he began a movement which was destined to rediscover the basic Christian freedoms which are now the common heritage of many Protestants.

Luther taught nothing new. He taught no doctrine which Christ Himself had not taught. But he did insist that men must teach and believe everything that Christ has revealed.

He insisted that all religion must be based on the Bible alone. 2 Tim. 3:16. He insisted that man is saved by grace alone, that salvation is one hundred per cent a free gift of God's mercy. Rom. 11:6. He insisted that man becomes a partaker of this free salvation alone by faith in the atonement of the Savior. Gal. 2.16. And he insisted that the individual Christian has direct access to the father-heart of God through Jesus Christ without any human intermediary. 1 Tim. 2:5.

If Luther were living today he would no doubt point modern Protestantism to the words of Scripture, "Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage." Gal. 5:1.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 24, was:

"PROBATION AFTER DEATH"

The Golden Text was:

"If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new" (II Cor. 5:17).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon were the following from the Bible:

"Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? . . . But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept. . . . For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death" (I. Cor. 15:12, 20, 25, 26).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science Textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"The Bible calls death an enemy, and Jesus overcame death and the grave instead of yielding to them. He was 'the way.' To him, therefore, death was not the threshold over which he must pass into living glory. . . . Jesus' unchanged physical condition after what seemed to be death was followed by his exaltation above all material conditions; and this exaltation explained his ascension, and revealed unmistakably a probationary and progressive state beyond the grave" (pp. 39, 46).

St. Peter church Reformation service Sunday, October 31

Ti give special emphasis to the anniversary of Luther's reformation, a special Reformation service will be held at St. Peter Evangelical Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, Sunday evening, October 31, at 7:30 p. m.

October 31 is the "birthday" of the Reformation. On that day, in the year 1517, Martin Luther posted his famous 95 Theses to the Castle church door at Wittenberg, Germany.

The ensuing debate on the theses of Luther led unmistakably to the reformation of the Medieval church and to the birth of Protestantism.

In his sermon Sunday evening, Pastor L. V. Stephan will speak on "The Mighty Acts of God Wrought Through His Servant, Luther."

Self Treatment Is Uncertain

by SIEBURG DRUG CO., Inc.

Treating yourself for any ailment will at best produce uncertain results. You may relieve temporarily an acute or chronic illness which should really have the doctor's care . . . by such delay in seeking the doctor's advice you prolong the illness . . . let it become serious.

Effective treatment of an illness begins when the cause is located . . . a task only the doctor is qualified to complete.

The doctor has a wide choice of pharmacy products from which he can prescribe for your illness. And drugs and biologicals properly stored and refrigerated are always available at the drug store with a reputation for excellent prescription compounding.

Ramblin' Around with Ramble Inn

by PHOEBE ANNE ELLIS

Tomorrow after school is the last chance to buy Ramble Inn memberships before the Hallow'e'en party. If everyone has his membership card, there will be no delay upon entering. Cards may be purchased at the High school.

President Ken Bork reports that the floor show this year will be the best ever! The entertainment committee, with Ruth Ann Fasick, chairman, Wally Page and Dawn Niemeyer, have arranged for Dick Liemetter's band to play from 8:00 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. A quartet of five boys will offer a few songs. The Schmeer Case Bros., whom you have been hearing so much about, will be quite an amazing feature. The identity of these "Brothers" is being kept secret.

There will be a mouse game, fish pond, skeleton dance, hot-dog racing, bingo, a merry clown and weight guessing.

Turtle racing, hooligan, merchandise wheels, and two fortune tellers will all be going strong at the same time. Even Mr. Bong and his "Schmoos" will be there!

Bob Hinds, wizard of electronics and terror, will run the gruesome Spook House this year. No one should miss this unusual experience.

The many super prizes have all been collected. The big ones will be raffled off every hour. Tickets to pro football games and the "Ice Follies" are some of the more interesting prizes, while smaller ones may be won at the games.

The Adult Board has worked hard with the Y. C. officers and sponsors to make this party loads of fun for everyone, so bring your membership card, wear your old clothes, and get ready for a memorable evening!

The club's first affair this year will be a roller skating party at the local rink November 15.

Volunteers for the clowning Tuesday night were Bob Haenisch and Jackie Riley.

For meat isn't a good value at ANY price if it's tough, dry or flavorless . . . or weighed with a lot of bone and coarse meat. That's why every single "Super-Right" cut is specially selected by experts from fine-quality beef, pork, veal and lamb, and Close-Trimmed to remove excess waste BEFORE . . . Prospect, will vary their usual business procedure by meeting for breakfast at the home of Mrs. Robert Geddes, Northwest highway, Arlington Heights. She asks that members come at 9:15 a. m. Friday, November 5, instead of the second Thursday, being Armistice day.

Her large home has a fine playroom where she has invited the ladies to bring their small children while the Guild's business will take place in another room.

A new project of the Guild is the rolling silver dollar. The progress is to be reported to Miss Betty Miles, the treasurer, each month. Mrs. William Winkler, chairman of the religious committee, announces that the United Thank Offering will be presented at the North Shore Deanery Ingathering on October 28.

Further plans are being made for the barn dance November 20. The posters seen about town are from the brush and pen of Betty Dahl and Deborah Haynsworth and distributed by Mrs. Russell Thomas.

Lions join 'no' column in changing C. & N. W. crossing gates

Arlington Heights Lions club this week joined other local civic groups and schools in voicing a protest against changing Chicago and Northwestern crossing gates here.

In a letter to Mayor Albert W. Goedke, B. L. Cochrane, chairman of civic improvement and community betterment committee of Lions, stated:

"Arlington Heights Lions club wishes to express a conviction on the proposed change of safety gates at village railroad crossings.

"The overwhelming majority of Lions members are opposed to removing the left-hand gate of each pair.

"We do not feel any possible saving in maintenance costs can reasonably justify the railroad management in running the risk of jeopardizing the excellent non-accident record held by the village for so many years.

COMPARISON PROVES

ONLY by comparing the party platforms, the party performances, — and MOST IMPORTANT OF ALL — the party candidates, can you WISELY decide how best to cast your ballot in the November 2 election.

TODAY, 61,000,000 Americans are at work. Incomes are at an all-time high. Gains that came from Democratic administration of YOUR affairs will NOT BE LOST under renewed Democratic management. Democrats kept the faith in the fight for: price controls, rent controls, greater social security, world cooperation, adequate housing, high minimum wages, SMALL BUSINESS, decent education, — and AGAINST Communism, bigotry and prejudice, slave labor laws, and the real estate lobby.

DEMOCRATS will CONTINUE to keep the faith to deserve continued public confidence.

WHAT'S the "other side?" Comparison proves! The alternative to liberal Democratic policy is CERTAIN LOSS of labor's gains, unchecked inflation, unlimited profits FOR THE FEW, inadequate housing, sky-high rentals, BOOM and BUST.

YOU live in Cook County. Comparison proves here, too. Democratic candidates are fit candidates—indorsed by independent newspapers, civic, business, and labor groups.

THEIR opponents? Well, The Better Government Association says: "The Republican county ticket is easily the worst ever presented to the voters of this community. Beside it, the Democratic ticket shines by comparison."

THE Chicago Daily News says the Republican ticket "represents the under-side of mediocrity."

THE Chicago Sun-Times says: "The G. O. P. state and county tickets are decked with names that recall the roaring 20's. Machine mates of Big Bill Thompson and Len Small would feel at home in Green and Company. In fact, some of them are right there."

THE Daily News says: "The Green administration is full of idle payrollers who make no pretense of working for their money. It nourishes a swarm of grafters, chiselers and racketeers who grow bolder every year. They threaten the moral health of the state."

Three musicians to entertain for Woman's club

"Autumn social; friendship with a song," will be the theme of the November 3 meeting of Arlington Heights Woman's club at 1:30 p. m. at the field house.

Three Arlington Heights residents will present a musical program for the group. They are Mrs. Robert Malcolm, soprano; Mrs. Richard Lull, pianist, and John Heintz Jr., pianist.

Mrs. Malcolm was a student at Juilliard Graduate school, and was associated with New York Civic opera company, Columbia Broadcasting company and National Broadcasting company. She also appeared in two Broadway plays, "The Cat and the Fiddle," and "Twenty-five Dollars an Hour."

Mrs. Lull has studied music all her life, and has done professional accompanying for many years. She studied piano at Northwestern university with Arne Oldberg, and studied accompanying with Carl Beecher.

John Heintz Jr., 11, has studied three and one-half years under Christian B. Flagg, concert pianist.

A social hour will follow the musical program.

Silver anniversaries reign this week

Four silver wedding anniversaries are highlighting activities in the social limelight this week.

Gordon Greens

A dinner party Sunday evening was given by Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Smith of Arlington Heights in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Green of Palanois Park, formerly of Arlington Heights.

Guests attending included Mr. and Mrs. E. Riley and daughter, Jean, of Elmhurst; Mr. and Mrs. A. Nelson, Mrs. Myrtle Green; and the celebrants' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Green, all of Arlington Heights.

The Smiths are Mrs. Green's parents and they presented the anniversary couple with 12 silver ice tea spoons. They also received a taffeta down comforter. A three tier wedding cake, made by Mrs. Riley, centered the dinner table.

Michael Saars to have open house Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Saar, 122 S. Evergreen, Arlington Hts., will hold an open house Saturday afternoon to celebrate their 25 years of marriage. An invitation to attend is extended to all their relatives and friends.

Fred Utterbacks

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Utterback, 116 S. Pine, Arlington Heights, were pleasantly surprised Sunday evening when a family group met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Baxter to honor them on their anniversary. Silver decorations prevailed and the Utterbacks were presented with sterling silverware to add to their set.

Out-of-town guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Byron Baxter Jr. of Waukegan.

Albert Kehes

Many parties have been given for and by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kehe, 300 W. Fremont, Arlington Heights, to celebrate their anniversary, which was October 20.

Among the 75 guests attending the dinner Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Colba of Phoenix, Ariz.; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Winkelman of Delevan, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Helm of Arcadia, Calif; Rev. and Mrs. Rudolph Geffert and daughter, Eleanor, of Harvey; Rev. and Mrs. Walter Geffert and sons, Jim and Paul, of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Esther Reincke of Fort Wayne, Ind.; and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Niebuhr of Onargo, Ill.

Master of ceremonies was O. Kolb, who did a splendid job of keeping the guests entertained. Mr. and Mrs. Kehe wish to thank their many relatives and friends for all the parties, the beautiful gifts and cards bestowed on them during this occasion.

Mrs. Kehe was honored with a special party given by the Ladies Aid of St. Peter Lutheran church last Thursday evening. They presented her with a gift, and entertained during the evening with bunco.

Stork Feathers

A girl has been added to the family of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Grom, 827 N. Pine, Arlington Heights. The little lady was born Oct. 16 at Elmhurst hospital, where she tipped the scales at 7 pounds 11 ounces. They have named her Gayle Marsha. The Groms also have a son, Gary, who is 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jaster, 400 S. Walnut, Arlington Hts. are happy parents of a daughter, Madeline Stella, who was born Oct. 21 at Elmhurst hospital. Madeline weighed in at 7 pounds 7 ounces. Mrs. Jaster is the former Helen Scheirich.

Ajello candles, dolls, movies at Christmas Fair

Arrangements have recently been made to show motion pictures for children at the annual Christmas fair of the Presbyterian church of Arlington Heights, scheduled for November 9.

Movies are being provided and will be shown by Mrs. Nicholas Lattof, member of the Women's Association which presents the Fair yearly. The movies, complete with sound, will be shown all day and evening, each feature about 15 minutes long. Admission will be fifteen cents.

Further attractions for children will be the penny candy counter, conveniently close to the "little theater," and the doll booth. A complete success last year, the doll booth promises even greater drawing power this year.

Mrs. Charles Bloecker Jr., chairman of the booth, reports an abundance of baby dolls, lady dolls, stuffed dolls and costume dolls, a collection to attract adults as well as children. Complete wardrobes will also be available for many of the dolls, all items hand made by members of the association.

A recent and highly prized acquisition is a collection of metal craft and handmade Ajello candles from Hagerstrom's Metal Craft of Wheeling. The candles in particular are of interest in that they are dipped by an Italian family famous for candle making for 600 years. By order of the royal family of England, they made 1,000 candles for the marriage ceremony of Princess Elizabeth, and at the Christmas Fair here will be an exact replica of these candles.

They are pure white candles of the Renaissance design, and although only one in white in the large size will be available, several smaller red ones of the same design will be shown. Others in the display will include decorative candles in forms of snow balls, snowmen, a Santa Claus head and the Bethlehem star, all delicately turned out and showing rare workmanship.

Scented candles are also to be in the collection, some with the bayberry scent, the burning of which is a tradition at Christmas time. The metal craft collection includes candle snuffers, serving trays and novel ash trays.

Home Bureau members enjoy overnight Springfield trip

Fifty-three members of the Cook County Home Bureau enjoyed an overnight bus trip to Lincolnland, Springfield, on October 20 and 21.

While in Springfield they visited the State house, Lincoln's home, the governor's home, and Lincoln's tomb. Before returning home they also visited New Salem Park.

The entire trip was planned by Mrs. Grant Wertman, County recreation chairman.

Lois Koenig and Richard Jahn take nuptial vows

A wedding ceremony October 15 at St. Paul's Congregational church, Chicago, united in marriage Miss Lois Koenig and Richard G. Jahn.

Miss Koenig is the daughter of Mrs. Marie Koenig of Chicago, and Mr. Jahn is the son of Richard H. Jahn of Arlington Heights.

The bride was attired in a green dress with brown accessories and wore a corsage of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Gertrude Krueger served as maid of honor. She was dressed in brown with light brown accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Earl Jensen, of Arlington Heights, was best man for the bridegroom.

Mrs. Koenig chose to wear a blue dress, which was set off with a corsage of pink camellia, for her daughter's wedding.

A reception for relatives and friends was held at the Hotel Alcazar following the ceremony.

Vondracek, will tell some of his experiences and observations he made while in Europe this summer.

In order that as many friends of the church as possible could hear the presentation, the meeting will be held in the sanctuary Sunday night, October 31, at 8 o'clock.

Everyone in the community is invited to attend the lecture and share in the fellowship tea to be served by the Women's Society in the church parlor following the meeting. Lutheran Education week highlight is movie 'Messenger of Peace'

Featured as part of Lutheran Education week at St. Peter Lutheran church, Arlington Hgts., will be a full length sound movie, "Messenger of Peace."

The movie will be shown Wednesday, November 10, at 8 p. m. at South school auditorium. No admission will be charged but a collection will be gathered.

Produced in Hollywood under sponsorship and direction of the Lutheran Laymen's league of the Lutheran church, it will bring to the screen a portrayal of the drama and human interest in the every day life of clergymen.

"It may be difficult to imagine an entertaining movie in which a Christian pastor is the 'hero,' or to expect tense drama in the film without pistol shots or a homewrecker," Rev. L. V. Stephan stated, "but both effects are magnificently achieved in the picture."

The public is invited to attend.

Man shortage?

This thought for the week, as garnered from Cook County Heral, October 2, 1908, needs no further explanation:

"A girl in one of the neighboring towns, on her wedding day, sold her piano and bought a sewing machine and material enough for suits for her husband and herself, and immediately set to making them up.

"Her husband spread the news, and in two months her four sisters were married"

'I Need Boyle,' Says Kennelly

BY CHARLES B. CLEVELAND

The partnership papers of Mayor Kennelly and John S. Boyle to organize in driving hoodlums from Cook County were formally signed Thursday night.

Said Kennelly: 'I need the kind of state's attorney John S. Boyle will be to finish my job of cleaning up Chicago.'

'All I want,' replied Boyle, Democratic candidate for the office, 'is to work with Mayor Kennelly and do the kind of job he expects me to do.'

The statements were made at a gathering in Boyle's boyhood area of some 700 friends and neighbors of the candidate at the South Side Masonic Temple, 64th and Green sts.

Endorse Boyle

Adding their endorsements for the first time together on a public platform were former State's Attorney Thomas J. Courtney and the current prosecutor, William J. Tuohy.

Both had high praise for Boyle's record as an assistant state's attorney and pledged their support in his campaign.

Many other county candidates were there too to add their words of congratulations to the candidate. Steve Bailey, business manager of the Plumbers' union, said his and other union groups would stump for Boyle.

But the big hand of the evening, led off by a spontaneous shout at his appearance, went to Mayor Kennelly, making his first public appearance for Boyle.

'It is difficult to be a good public official,' Kennelly said, 'because you have so many people who want to do it the other way.

'I am sure he (Boyle) will make a good prosecutor --not persecutor. For 16 years we have had good prosecutors. We don't want to turn the office over to persecutors. That sometimes happens, you know.'

Boyle's View

Boyle, in pledging himself to Mayor Kennelly's good government program, said he would fight the breakdown of government in suburban areas.

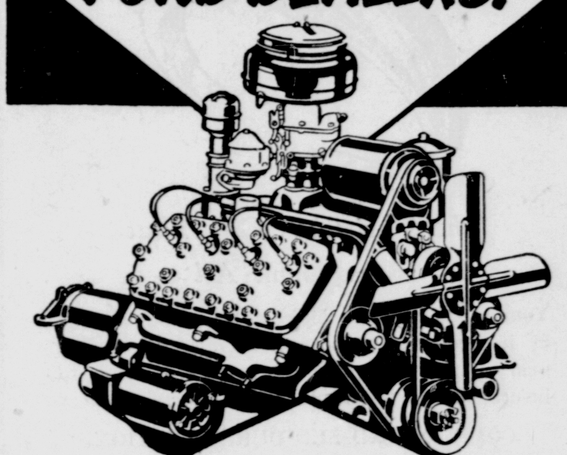

'I will win this election,' he said, 'because a Republican sheriff has failed to enforce the law and because in two instances Republican town boards have sold out to the underworld bosses.'

John S. Boyle's Candidacy is approved by both the Chicago Crime Commission and the Chicago Bar Association.

DADS NIGHT ON ARLINGTON FIELD VS LIBERTYVILLE FRIDAY

MACS SAYS

The 1948 high school football season is nearing its close. Crystal Lake appears to be the class of the North Suburban loop and could suffer a defeat at the hands of Warren Friday night and still take the championship by whipping Libertyville the following week. To this observer it looks like Crystal Lake undefeated. In the big Suburban League Oak Park and New Trier are tied at the top and probably will finish that way. LaGrange nosed out Maine 13-12 last Saturday and with it the West Suburban crown. Naperville seems to have little opposition in the Little Seven with a great team and a spotless record. Bloom, in the South Suburban has crushed all opposition.

Pick Leyden to win Northeast Gridiron Round Robin

The round robin elimination series of the three remaining Northeast Conference teams is interesting in that all three have demonstrated much more class than any of their five former league mates who seceeded. Arlington beat Niles Friday by virtue of Bill Robinson's smart playing. Several observers told us the teams were evenly matched except that Arlington had Robinson. That was a two touchdown edge.

This week Niles invades Leyden and will probably suffer another defeat and by a larger score. Leyden, who romped over Downers Grove 27-0, can play ball this year with any club in the state and hold their own. Next week Nov. 5, Arlington plays at Leyden in the final of the season. That is one game we want to see.

Palatine has chance at Grant Saturday if they won't give up

In the Northwest Conference Barrington's bruising Bronchos brushed aside Northbrook, 38-0, and have nothing tougher remaining in Antioch and Grant. Antioch's morale is good but they do not have the man power to stay with Coach Fry's Barrington squad. Grant, riddled by injuries, should be easy pickings for the Bronchos.

In fact, Palatine would have a chance with Grant Saturday night if the Pirates could just get the idea into their head. Two bad beatings have hurt Palatine spirit, but there is one more chance to recover early season prestige and get out of the cellar. It's up at Fox Lake Saturday night. We are wondering if the Palatine team has what it takes to be good athletes, the spirit to come back strong on the end of a losing season. We will see Saturday night.

Bisons figure to finish second

Bensenville's Bisons, overrated at the start of the season and under rated after one league game, are coming along in fine shape and figure to take second in the final tabulations. Northbrook and Antioch should be to their liking. We have not seen a better backfield man in the conference than Hank Komay of Bensenville on Friday's performance. Keller was not far behind.

Northeast teams looking for members for new league

As the season nears its close all schools plan for the 1949 schedule. Arlington, Leyden, and Niles are scouting around to line up schools for a new conference. We have little idea of who they have in mind but possibilities from this point might be Belvidere, DeKalb, Marmion Military Academy, Morgan Park Military Academy, Hinsdale and Downers Grove of the West Suburban who lack size, and Kankakee of the South Suburban. Then again the South Suburban with but five schools since the departure of Kankakee might like to add the three outcasts but their league looks a bit too tough. Thornton found the big Suburban League too tough and moves back to the South Suburban at the end of this year. Bloom and Thornton would be too strong for Arlington, Niles, and Leyden just now but not for long.

Grayslake and Warren likely to find new league too strong

To develop strong teams takes strong competition within the squad and tough competitors to play. The schools which left the Northeast Conference will find that is true. They won't play as good ball in a slower and smaller league than they did against Arlington, Niles, and Leyden.

And by the way, we wonder how Grayslake and Warren like the new set up. By next year they will be finding it much to tough for their 250 enrollment. They are just the right class for Northwest Conference but that league is full, satisfied, and not likely to consider adding any new members.

Hear from Lennie Anderson, Great Lake Forest quaterback

We had a letter this past week from Lennie Anderson, all state mention quaterback and twice All-Northeast Conference gridder at Lake Forest. Lennie is a regular back on the Yale University freshman team.

Lennie states he was sorry to see the Northeast Conference break up and he feels that his alma mater Lake Forest will suffer rather than beneift from the shift due to weaker competition. Lennie states in speaking of his former coach Lindenmeyer at Lake Forest that "I still maintain that Lindy's calibre and coaching ability cannot be topped; he was really admired by all of "his boys" and by the townspeople and school."

Anderson went to Yale on a scholarship based on his high rank in the graduating class at Lake Forest. Lennie excelled in the class room as well as on the gridiron. Really great athletes are usually fellows of high intelligence.

Ela runs over Wauconda, 34-0

Ela ran over Wauconda 34-0 last Friday in their second meeting of the season. Ela won the earlier grid battle 7-0. Ela had 14 first downs to Wauconda's 11, made 270 to 49 yards rushing and gained 87 to Wauconda's 104 on passes. Ela completed six out of 11 and Wauconda 10 out of 21. Knigge, Dahm, and Prouty each scored once for Ela while Centoni hit pay dirt twice. Extra points were scored by Sandman, Regan, and Dahm. Ela scored three touchdowns in the opening quarter.

Palatine Eagles host Sunday to Franklin Park

Football addicts in search of good entertainment will find it Sunday at the Palatine high field. The local Eagles will be out to avenge an earlier 12-6 defeat handed them when they met Franklin Park under lights three weeks ago.

The visitors have a fine passing attack and a speedy backfield. In their last meeting, the Eagles checked the runners but couldn't cope with the passing. Recent games have showed a definite trend toward a tightening pass defense.

The Eagles, who lost to Belvidere on their home field, 12-0, two weeks ago, played Belvidere to a standstill last Sunday when they met under lights at Belvidere. The final count was 7 to 7.

THE HOME TEAM tallied in the first quarter and Palatine tied it up in the second when a pass play with Whitey Dushen of Barrington on the receiving end was good for six points. Palatine's quarterback dropkicked the extra point. As usual, the line-play for Palatine was outstanding.

The Eagles are coming along fast and as one of the squad members who finished playing with Arlington high last year put it, "I've never played on a team with the hustle these boys have in spite of the fact they haven't won a game yet."

Game time Sunday is 2 p. m.

Barrington tops Northbrook, 38-0

Barrington's fast stepping Bronchos added another shutout victim to their conference string Saturday as they celebrated homecoming with a 38-0 drubbing of the Northbrook Vikings. Barrington scored twice in the first period and three times in the second for a 32-0 half time margin. Subs played most of the second half.

Bauman and Hansen scored for the Bronchos in the opening period on runs of eight and 15 yards respectively. Early in the second quarter Hansen scored on a blocked punt. Then Kranz tallied on a 17 yard run and Shuett galloped 50 yards to the end zone on an intercepted pass. Kranz ran 22 yards to put over the final TD in the third quarter.

BARRINGTON had a decided edge in all departments of play and depended mainly upon a strong running game to whip the Vikings. The Bronchos made 12 first downs to Northbrook's three, all against Barrington subs. They had a total of 338 yards gained from scrimmage on running plays to Northbrook's 66 and 48 to 17 on passes. Barrington completed two out of four passes and Northbrook three out of nine. Northbrook never got the ball past midfield.

Big John Hansen of Barrington averaged 8.7 yards on 10 attempts while Kranz averaged 7.2 in the same number of tries. The poorest average among Broncho backs was five yards for each ball carrying attempt.

Bisons rout Palatine in 2nd half to win decisively, 32-0

Bensenville's passing attack turned a close game into a rout Friday night as the Bisons scored three times in the final quarter to whip Palatine 32-0. Up to that time Palatine had actually out-gained Bensenville but once the passes started to click Palatine became a badly beaten team.

Palatine showed a good running attack in the first half as they chalked up seven first downs but the Bisons eventually slowed down each drive and finally in the second period put on one of their own to lead 6-0 at the half. The Bisons started on their own 31 yard line and scored in eight plays. A 25 yard run by Hank Komay and passes of 19, 12, and 18 yards did the trick. Kellar threw the touchdown pass to H. Komay from the 18 yard line. Bensenville threatened again in the second period but were stopped on the 25 yard line.

Midway in the third period Bensenville advanced to midfield and instead of punting with 4th down and four to go tossed a pass good for a 34 yard gain, setting up the second score. The touchdown was a nine yard pass from Kellar to Baldwin. From that point on the game became a rout with Palatine contributing to their own defeat by failing to punt on two occasions on fourth down when stopped in their own end of the field.

Score three times in final period

The third touchdown was scored on a march of 52 yards. A 22 yard pass to H. Komay was the long gain in the series but most of the yardage was on line plays. Kellar plunged over from the two yard line and Vuglar kicked the point. Shortly afterward Palatine gave up the ball on fourth down on their own 41 yard line. A pass from Komay to Kellar was good for 44 yards after Komay had lost five on the first play. Hank Komay plunged over from the two yard line and Vuglar kicked the extra point.

Palatine repeated their error by failing to kick on fourth down and gave the ball to the Bisons on the Palatine 45. Passes of 10 and 20 yards to Hank Komay highlighted a scoring drive of six plays as August Komay scored.

Bisons gain 249 yards on passes

Bensenville completed 14 passes in 24 tries for a total of 249 yards with Kellar doing most of the throwing to Komay and Baldwin. Komay tossed several long ones to Kellar. Much of the Bison passing success was due to the fact that the Palatine line did not rush Kellar in his throwing. With Loeber and Kagay doing most of the ball carrying Palatine gained more yardage on the ground than Bensenville but the Pirates never did get inside the Bison 20 yard line.

Pirate frosh-sophs win 13-7 on long runs

Palatine won the preliminary frosh-soph game 13-7, scoring twice in the first half on long runs by Krause and Day of 60 and 45 yards. Lauman scored a touchdown for Bensenville in the fourth quarter and the Bisons were threatening again as the game ended. Palatine made only one first down to Bensenville's seven but had the edge in ground gained by 159 to 125 due to the two long touchdown runs.

AHTHS cross country team defeats Niles but loses to Leyden

The newest Arlington Heights Cardinal athletic team, the newly organized cross-country team won its first meet by defeating Niles last Friday, 22 to 33.

Leonard Grimmer missed winning individual honors by missing a turn and running too far. Even with the extra distance he came in a close second to a Niles runner. Jim Keithley ran third, John Horcher fourth, Dave Kurtz sixth and Godfrey, a freshman, came in seventh.

On Tuesday the thinclads took on the veteran Leyden team at Leyden and were shown a real running exhibition. Three Leyden boys, Salce, Jensen and Isbell came in to win the first three places with Salace's time of 9 min. 56 sec. for the approximate two miles being excellent time.

Leonard Grimmer showed excellent form in taking a strong 4th while John Horcher took 7th and Keithley, Godfrey and Kurtz finished for Arlington in that order. The score was 38 to 17 in Leyden's favor.

Arlington will enter seven men in the state district cross-country meet at Proviso this coming Saturday.

Palatine at Grant Saturday; N'brook vs Bisons Friday

Arlington Heights high school football Cardinals entertain Libertyville Friday night with dads of the boys on all three Heights grid squads sitting in as guests. Special halftime festivities will fete fathers, whose sons were given tickets this week for the contest.

Arlington has racked up three wins against Barrington, probable Northwest conference champion, Crystal Lake, probable North Suburban conference champ, and Niles. They have dropped two games to Marmion and Kankakee.

Coach Curtis Larsen's boys will be out to garner win number four this week with the final and most important game of the year next week end at Leyden.

Reserved seats for the Libertyville game are on sale at Millay's in downtown Heights and at the high school.

PALATINE journeys to Grant Saturday night for an arc contest against the Bulldogs.

The Fox Lake aggregation is just one notch above the Pirates in league standings, and represent Palatine's final hope of leaving the cellar. This will be the final tussle for the Cook county team.

The Pirates appeared to fall apart the final quarter at Bensenville last Friday night when the Bisons tallied three times. Up to halftime the Palatine eleven, though trailing, 6-0, had acquired more than their share of the statistics.

BENSENVILLE travels to Northbrook Friday night with only the Antioch contest remaining on their slate the following week.

Coach Meneguin's boys are picked by some experts to win at Northbrook, but the Vikings have always been "tough nuts to crack."

It was just two years ago, October 4, 1946, that Northbrook nosed the Bisons, 7-6, to eliminate them from a share of the Northwest title. Last season the DuPage county team won, 13-7, to gain the co-championship with Grant.

Arlington salutes 40 'A' club grads

Forty former winners of the "A" emblem in Arlington Hts. high school sports were on hand as guests of honor in Friday night's 12-0 victory over the Niles Trojans, according to athletic director Wally Grace.

The two score group of Hts. athletes of other years came back to see Coach Curtis Larsen's charges perform according to plan, with halftime festivities feting the veteran letter winners, seated in a special reserved section.

OLDEST letter winner identifying himself at the game was Clifford M. Crane of the class of '26. Mr. Crane won awards in football, track, baseball and basketball in his day, and rated top seniority Friday from the standpoint of year of graduation.

Headlining halftime festivities at the game was the Arlington Heights high school band, led by director Fritz Schmoyer. A girls' sextet sang "My Buddy" in salute to the veterans of the first world war, while the band played "Praise The Lord and Pass the Ammunition" in memory of those who fought in the last war.

LATE ARRIVALS of "A" men swelled the ranks of those attending the game, but as complete a list as possible of former letter winners at Arlington high is listed herein with graduation year and sports inserted.

Robinson leads Arlington to 12-0 win over Niles Trojans

by MARVIN PRELLBERG

Led by the expert quarterbacking and running of Bill Robinson, Coach Curtis Larsen's Arlington Varsity football squad played its best game of the season last Friday night, when it whipped Niles by a 12-0 count on the home field.

Robinson scored both the touchdowns for the Cards and went over for one more in the third quarter which was called back on a tripping penalty. The Cardinal line played outstanding ball throughout the game, with Jimmy Stavros playing a bang up game at guard, as did Ralph Heinze at the line backer position. The Trojans couldn't find any way to bust Arlington's defense, and their farthest advance into Cardinal territory was the 28 yard stripe.

Arlington got its first break of the game early in the first quarter when Pete Heininger's fourth-down kick was booted only 4 yards up to the Trojans 40 yard line. Charlie Fischer ripped through on a quick opener for a first and ten on the 20, but the Cards failed to find any hole in the Nilehi line, and the threat ended on the 21. Niles' biggest scoring opportunity of the game came midway in this period on a long pass by Lange to Pete Heininger, netting 21 yards up to the locals' 32. Two line plays moved them up to the 28, but a fumble and an incomplete pass ended that drive.

ARLINGTON'S first TD came midway in the second period climaxing a 39-yard march. It took just 3 plays for Coach Larsen's charges to get over from the 39, as Robinson's long pass to Dick Brown up to the 4 put the Cards in good scoring position with a first and goal to go. Fischer banged his way to the 1, and on the next play Robinson went through on a quarterback sneak for the first score. The extra point center was fumbled, but Arlington was in the lead, 6-0, when the half ended.

The third frame was more of a punting duel than anything else. The only touchdown action was provided by Arlington on the old faithful double reverse pass from Fischer to Robinson which was good for 33 yards and a TD. However, a tripping penalty cost the Cards this score, and the rest of the quarter was a sea-saw battle.

Arlington's final and most spectacular touchdown came late in the last period. Having made little yardage through Arlington's strong forward wall, Heininger was forced to punt from his own 5. He got off a fine kick up to the Trojans' 46 yard stripe, where Robinson caught it, eluded one tackler, ran into a swarm of other tacklers, but once again came weaving through, burst out into the open, and ran the remaining yards for a touchdown. Ken Bork missed the conversion try, but the game ended shortly with Arlington on Niles' 11 yard line, holding a 12-0 lead and a victory.

TOMORROW night Arlington will celebrate Dad's Night with a game against Libertyville on the home field. A victory will give the Arlingtonites their fifth win in 7 starts, including their fourth straight.

In the opening game of the evening, Arlington's Frosh-Soph team suffered its first set back of the 1948 season, by an 18-14 count, to an aggressive Niles High squad.

The Cards pushed ahead of Niles in the first period when Bob Packard raced 29 yards around left end for a touchdown, with Ronny Thill going over for the extra point on a fake kick.

However this lead was withered down to a 7-6 margin late

Frosh lose to Niles eleven, 7-0

by MARVIN PRELLBERG

Arlington's frosh football team ended a rather dismal season last Friday afternoon with a 7-0 loss to Niles on the local field. This loss was a moral victory to the Cards however, for Niles previously had rolled over most of its opposition with no trouble at all.

The Trojans' touchdown was scored after a fake punt had moved the visitors far down in Cardinal territory. Dick Le Veau tallied the winning score for Niles.

The Cards' season record was a poor 1 win and 5 losses.

Open house at high school rates 'best ever'

by AUDREY SUJACK

"School certainly has changed since I graduated." These sentiments were expressed by many of the approximately 600 parents who attended Arlington Heights high school open house Thursday evening. As a reporter for the Cardinal it was my good fortune to visit Open House, assuming the role of a parent.

As guests entered the front hall, they were greeted on the left by a display commemorating United Nations week. A table containing United Nations literature, a bowl of chrysanthemums, and a softly glowing table lamp created a warm atmosphere. Miss Katharine Renich had arranged this beautiful display. On the right was a drawing of a perky little red school house publicizing the open house and inviting everyone to attend. Dan Neimeyer had created the poster.

Visitors assembled in the gymnasium where the program began. Miss Louise Youngren, chairman of the public relations committee sponsoring open house, calmly presided. After she had welcomed the guests, she introduced the other members of the committee, who are our principal Mr. LeRoy Knoepnel, Miss Ethel Riordin, Miss Patricia Potts, and Miss Kathryn Redman.

Miss Youngren then introduced Mr. Elmer Laurin, president of the school board, who gave a short address. He told of Arlington High's growth from a comparatively small school to a quite large school still not large enough to accomodate its enrollment of 811 students. This figure has jumped from 715 of last year. "Arlington Heights Township high school is suffering from growing pains," he stated. "Still more additions are being planned for future years."

TO CONCLUDE the program Miss Youngren introduced Arlington High's vocal director, Mr. William Boland, who directed community singing. Mr. Boland hilariously lead the audience in singing such favorites as "School Days," "My Wild Irish Rose," "Bicycle Built for Two," and other all-time favorites.

With the assembly concluded parents began a typical school day following their child's schedule. They attended 10 minute classes with 5 minutes for passing. Stationed throughout the halls directing parents to the correct rooms were National Honor Society members and two representatives from each home room.

Since I had chosen to write this article on Open House, I decided to follow by regular schedule. I started with Miss Leta McMillin's Home Room 107. As parents entered this room, they were given name cards designed by Mrs. Hazel Faulkner and her office practice students. Two assistants helping Miss McMillin pinned these cards on each parent identifying each as "Mr. or Mrs. Smith, father or mother of Mary Smith." After the attendance was taken Miss McMillin introduced herself and expressed her thanks to the parents that had attended. Miss McMillin then read a welcoming letter as an example of announcements read daily in home room. After this she discussed with us her responsibilities as a home room teacher.

Later a box of candy was awarded to the three home rooms with the highest percentage attending. The winners were Mr. Edward Paulus's room 214 with 72%, Mr. Leo Bell's room 105 with 66%, and Mr. John Schaff's room 212 with 63%.

The first class I attended was Mr. Leo Bell's Study Hall 105. Mr. Bell explained the rules of Study Hall. During the rest of the period guests were invited to visit the school counselors or inspect the library and meet our librarian, Mrs. Gertrude O'Connor.

Next I visited Mrs. Hazel Faulkner's office practice room 108. Mrs. Faulkner began class by explaining the purpose of office practice which is to bridge the gap between the classroom training and work experience in an office. She told of her method of grading and the schedule she has planned for the year.

Following this I entered Journalism, room 118 taught by Miss Louise Youngren. Miss Youngren told us that although she believes Journalism to be one of the most exciting subjects, it also has the most "headaches" caused by meeting the countless deadlines. Toward the end of the class she passed out our school newspaper, "The Cardinal," giving parents a chance to look over work done by the journalism class.

Then I went to a joint gym class conducted by Mrs. Madeliene Hohenhorst, the girls' gym teacher and Mr. James Thon, one of the boys' instructors. Mrs. Hohenhorst spoke about the various sports girls have participated in and the new towel service this year. Mr. Thon passed out cards showing the boys' progress in different sports. The cards make up most of the boys' grades.

Mr. Reuben Conrad's Economics class came next in room 205. Mr. Conrad spoke of the many different topics discussed in this class. The parents seemed very interested in it, for Mr. Conrad was asked if Economics could be taken at night school. Mr. Conrad replied that if enough people are interested in Economics, night classes could be started in January.

The last class I visited was Mrs. Faulkner's Typing II class. "The only purpose of this class is for our typists to learn to type better and faster," Mrs. Faulkner told us.

Hungry and tired after a strenuous evening of going to school, the happy and satisfied parents trudged into the cafeteria where punch and cake was served. Here teachers, parents, and friends of Arlington High visited and relaxed.

Kentucky

Leonard J. Dvoracek of Wolf & Palatine sts., Mt. Prospect, was among the volunteers to complete four weeks basic training at Camp Campbell, Ky.

He and his buddies have been assigned to a special training company commanded by Captain H. K. Graves. The company comprises approximately 100 men.

After eight weeks of basic training the volunteers will be given definite assignments for the remaining period of service.

Renovating Furniture

To remove dents from furniture, cover with moist blotting paper and apply heat by ironing over the blotter. The heat and moisture tend to cause the wood to swell and fill the dent. The piece may then be cleaned with turpentine and a new coat of wax applied.

THE RED & WHITE OF IT

by RUTH LOEFFLER

Students of Arlington High, who don't know how to dance, will have an opportunity to learn. The high school is sponsoring a series of "after school dancing." There will be a tuition fee of five dollars for five, two hour lessons every Wednesday afternoon. Classes will start as soon as they are filled.

At a Student Senate meeting, the president appointed a committee to decide when the school dances should be scheduled. Those selected were: Jeanine Shelkop, Betty McCall, and Ronald Baumann. Ronald Anderson automatically became chairman.

The Junior and Senior boys, will visit the Great Lakes Naval station on Nov. 26. They will be shown the fundamentals of radar, electronics, and flight control. There will be a limited number of boys who will be able to go, as the school is unable to take all of them.

The Camera Club is planning a trip to the Daily News Building in Chicago. They are leaving on Friday the 29th. The purpose for this trip is to learn the different aspects of photography.

New officers for the Spanish Club have been chosen for this year. They are Peggy Ashe, president; Jim Brown, vice-president; Peggy Sieburg, secretary; Jackie Majewski, treasurer; Kathy Shanklin, program chairman; and Bob Peterson, social chairman. Miss Margaret Firth is club advisor.

Nov. 4 will be the date of the next program of the Cardinals on the Air. They will feature the school board, commemorating National Education Week, Nov. 7 to 13.

Legion confab

Jack Moodie and John Otzen, will be representatives of Merle Guild American Legion Post No. 208 at the 25th annual Conference of Commanders and Adjutants. Chief officers of 1130 Legion posts in Illinois are invited to the conference, to be held in the McBarnes Memorial building, Bloomington, Ill., Saturday and Sunday, November 6-7.

Climax of the program will be an address Sunday morning by the 1949 national commander, to be chosen this week at the national Legion convention in Miami.

Presbyterian youth hear speaker on race discrimination

Rev. O. J. Hawkins, an ordained negro pastor from Wilson, N. C., presented an interesting talk and discussion on the problem of race discrimination at the Arlington Heights Presbyterian church youth meeting Sunday night, October 23. Thirteen members of the negro, Grace Presbyterian church youth group of Chicago were invited to assist Rev. Hawkins with the panel discussion.

The object of this get together was to acquaint the youth of Arlington Heights with the problems of prejudice and race hatred and to help them and the future generations overcome this barrier.

Following the meeting the group retired to the dining room where refreshments were served and entertainment presented.

Arlington trims Niles

in the second quarter when the Trojans' star half back, Don Berg, raced 50 yards for a touchdown.

SECOND HALF was the locals' downfall as Niles pushed across two tallies to Arlington's one. The Trojan's scored first on a long pass from Walters to Berg, covering 43 yards and a touchdown, to go out in front 12-7.

Whitey Gowrys scored the winning tally for Niles when he intercepted Harry Griffith's pass on the 15 and ran for a touchdown and an 18-7 lead.

Arlington scored in the last few seconds on a pass from Griffith to Thill with Griffith kicking the placement. This TD was not enough, however, and the final score read 18-14 in favor of Niles.

The next game for the Arlington underclassmen is against St. Mary's of Des Plaines on the Cardinal field today.

All-star cage game

The 9th All-Star Basketball classic will be staged at the Chicago Stadium the night of November 26 and will feature the World Champion Minneapolis Lakers with George Mikan and Jim Pollard, against the pick of the 1948 graduate College Stars.

As a co-feature (opening game at 8 p. m.) on the card, the spectacular New York Rens who lost to the Lakers by only a few points in the World's Championship Tournament last Spring, will battle the powerful Anderson Duffey Packers.

The Minneapolis Lakers need no build-up with basketball fans in Chicago and the Midwest, or elsewhere for that matter. Neither does the high quality of the All-Star program which some 20,000 fans have enjoyed annually during the past nine years. This one promises to be even more spectacular than its predecessors.

Mail orders for tickets are now being accepted. The game has been a complete sell-out each year and the smart thing is to buy tickets early, NOW. Prices are $4.20, $3.00, $2.20, $1.50 and $1. The dollar tickets are general admission and buying them now saves standing in line the night of the game.

On the sidelines

by MARV PRELLBERG

Friday night's game not only brought a 12-0 victory for the Cards, but also brought one of the finest tributes ever paid to the Heights' coaching staff. Coach Harold Issacson of Niles, who quotes his boys in saying, "Arlington played the cleanest and the most sportsmanlike football of any team Niles has met this year." This shows that clean, hard football will always pay off—in more ways than one too.

Tomorrow the Cards tussle with Libertyville, and there has been no let up in the practice schedule for the week. Even that the Wildcats are not rated very highly, a losing team always can make a good team look bad by coming through with an upset. This could very easily happen to Arlington Friday if the Cards aren't on their toes at all times.

A disappointing factor in the Cards' season this year is the fact that the Arlington, Mt. Prospect and Wheeling fans aren't supporting our team. Coach Curtis Larsen's boys have done a whale of a job on the field, and it should be your duty as a citizen and taxpayer to come out and support your teams. New bleachers have been erected and with the lights, the Arlington field is probably the best around this area and is an excellent place to witness a football game.

Dad's night will be celebrated this Friday during the game, and all fathers whose sons are members of the Frosh, Frosh-Soph or Varsity football teams are to be given a free ticket for the special reserved seat section.

On October 30 seven Cardinal runners are going to enter in the District Cross Country meet at Proviso high school.

Bears hope to regain reputation Sunday

Chicago Bears football squad slipped and slide to a 12-7 defeat at Philadelphia Sunday with a wet field deciding the contest. They'll be out to regain their composure and reputation for winning this Sunday afternoon at Wrigley Field against the New York Giants.

The only two defeats suffered by George Halas' "boys" this year have been at the hands of eastern rivals. The Giants previously won a 17-14 exhibition tilt at the expense of the Chicago team.

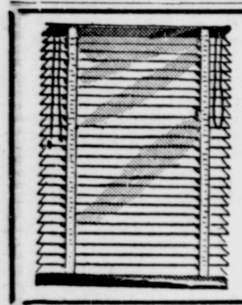

A near-sellout crowd is expected Sunday, providing the weather remains fair, with Sid Luckman and Johnny Lujack certain to share the quarterback spot until the Bears have gained the upper hand.

Items from here and there

Bob Nelson, an outstanding back at Arlington under Coach Seidler, is now a regular on the Northwestern University defensive team. The Wildcats shift teams on defense and offense. Over at Northwestern Walker, Grant's 230 pound tackle and boxer of last season is a regular on the frosh team. Walker was twice all Northwest Conference tackle. Jim Blessing, Niles back of last year, was given considerable publicity for fine ball carrying efforts in the Lake Forest College — Wheaton College game Saturday. Gaspar, Borg, and Gutnik of Bensenville see much action with the Lake Forest eleven. — Crystal Lake's Tigers, coached by Max Brady, suffered a real blow last week when Tom Cowan, fleet halfback received a broken leg in practice. The Tigers were just as ferocious at Woodstock Friday night as usual, however. — Palatine and Northbrook got a chance to start basketball a week ahead of the other Northwest teams by playing their football game back in September rather than November 6. They will need extra practice and then will probably not be in the league race for prospects are below normal at both schools. — Barrington figures to be the strong basketball school this year in the Northwest league. — It is our opinion that had Ela decided to play league football this year they would have finished fourth in the seven team conference. They looked impressive walloping Wauconda 34-0 last Friday. This week they tackle Lemont and that should give a good comparison with the conference schools, especially Palatine and Barrington. — 7-6 seems to be a popular score in the North Suburban League. Lake Forest beat Libertyville 7-6, Woodstock beat Warren 7-6, and Warren topped Libertyville 7-6. — Our preseason picks were Crystal Lake, Warren, and Zion in the North Suburban. Not too far off the predictions at this point. — Palatine and Barrington frosh-soph teams have not met defeat in regular league games this year. They have a tie with each other and Barrington also had a tie with Bensenville. We are looking forward to seeing them meet as varsity teams in the 1950 season back here at Palatine.

Prohibition candidates 'stump' in Barrington

The prohibitionist meeting held at the village hall last Thursday was fairly attended.

A. W. Miller of LaGrange delivered the principal address. John Whitson, prohibitionist candidate for the seventh district, gave an earnest talk asking the support of voters at the coming election in order to defeat Lantz, the democratic candidate.

TALES OF THE STREET

● FALLING LEAVES

Never in the memory of oldtimers did leaves ever fall as fast as they did Sunday night and Monday after the big freeze of ten days ago.

The ground was covered with a perfect blnaket of brightly colored foliage. The freeze, so unusual for so early in the season, broke all existing records for this area. Even hardy Mums, many of which had just started to bloom, were frozen.

Many autoists also were unprepared for the big freeze, as they hurriedly put in calls for anti-freeze.

● WINTER CLOTHES

The sudden advent of cold weather was a big boost to the winter clothing trade, and stores were crowded with people looking for caps, sweaters, jackets and gloves and heavy clothing.

● MORE CORN

Just how fine the corn crop is around this part of the country is being shown almost daily as more samples of fine corn are brought in after Fred Blume brought in some fine Minnesota corn.

Specimens from the Einer Erickson and Martin Kreft farms have joined others on display. Much of this corn is of the pioneer variety. Now Bill Bauman sells Pioneer brand corn around here. How about Bill bringing in a sample from his farm to show the boys a sales agent can raise as good corn as he sells.

● FALL WINDOW

Once more the annual fall window at the Sanitary Market has appeared with leaves, corn, birds and animals, as well as fruits of the garden and orchard, all arranged in a natural setting.

The window is an attractive stopping point for people walking along the street, and lends a touch of fall and Hallowe'en atmosphere to the road.

● BONFIRES AND PEP

If the size of the homecoming bonfire had anything to do with results of the homecoming football game, the score should have been reversed, but unfortunately the bonfire didn't seem to help much.

After brief talks by the coach and some players, who didn't sound nearly as optimistic as their words would lead you to believe, the frosh-soph coach was called on.

He didn't say much, but what he did say took hold. He said he had a fine bunch of boys (loud cheers) and then asked what was the matter with the cheering (which, like the speeches, hadn't been very fiery). He stated the boys didn't like to play for a crowd that couldn't cheer any better than that.

Bingo! came a change. The Frosh-soph cheerleaders went into action and pulled the crowd out of the dumps. The next day the frosh-soph team played real football to hold the Barrington scrubs to a 6-6 tie. It seemed the home team appreciated that final burst of enthusiasm the night before.

● BUSY PLACE

Palatine municipal building is a busy place these days.

Tuesday night, for instance, a zoning board meeting was going on in the court room, a plan commission meeting in the clerk's office, and the town football team going to "school" in the main hall.

By the way, the town team has a big squad of young, ambitious fellows. Maybe they havn't made a great record this year (although no team has been able to do much against that powerful line), but this is their first year together. If those lads get more working experience, they will surely be heard from in later years.

● ITS DAY OF GLORY

A lot of mean things have been said about that hole in the ground at Wilson and Brockway streets, but even it had its day of glory.

With the basement full of trees, shrubs and weeds and vines, that old hole was a beautiful sight when leaves started to turn all shades of red, yellow and brown.

Yes, even the old glory hole that has been kicked around so much in recent years had its day of glory during those fine autumnal days.

● IT'S HERE—THE GREAT DAY

The dawn of a new tomorrow.

A new era will dawn for America Tuesday, November 2, an era of hope for the freedom and peace of all nations.

Winston Churchill, wartime prime minister of England, has stated World War II could have and should have been avoided. Why America was dragged into another war "to make the world safe for Democracy" for a world farther away at this moment than at any time in history is well-known to American people.

And the fact that American people know the answer to that question is the reason they are determined this time to put a new national government in Washington.

There must never be another Munich; there must never be another world war that will take the lives of millions of American men; there must never be another sixteen years of secret deals, of selling nations down the river to pacify a dictator.

There must never again be the danger of a dictator in America, of government ursurping rights of American people; there must never be the pitting of class against class, creed against creed, color against color, labor against capital.

There must never again be sixteen years of a government whose whole creed was "borrow, spend and elect."

There must never be a New Deal government which will take the place of our American government.

An awakened American people are going to the polls November 2 to vote for the dawn of a new tomorrow, for a new era of hope for America and for the world.

● METER TAKE

For the information of folks who like to know how the meter take is coming, here's the list for the last couple of months, as the old vacuum cleaner hauled in the coins.

September 2, $133.14; September 10, $117.73; September 17, $130.59; September 24, $135,12; October 1, $134.73; October 8, $1128.11; October 15, $129.41; October 22, $127.70.

All of this shows the meter revenue sticks right around the same mark week after week, but is a long long way off from that $8 per month per meter picture that looked so good when they were installed.

Weekly recipe

The line will form at the kitchen door when the odor of these delicious hot rolls permeates your home. You'd better double the amount if the family is large. They'll love them!

Nutty hot rolls

1½ cups all purpose flour; ¼ tsp. salt; ½ cup butter; 1 cake yeast dissolved in ¼ cup warm milk 1 tbsp. sugar; 2 warrented eggs.

Later use: ¼ cup granulated sugar, ¼ cup nuts, chopped.

Method: Sift flour and salt together; add butter, using hands for mixing. Prepare yeast in milk and add sugar. Let stand five minutes. Combine flour and butter mixture yith yeast and add unbeaten eggs. Cover this dough and let rise for one hour. This is a soft dough. Then, turn raised dough out on to lightly floured board — flour fingers, too — and divide into 20 small pieces. Turn each piece over in the sugar and nut mixture (which you have for later use) until well coated. Twist dough into desired shape and place on buttured cookie sheet. Let rise for 10 minutes. Bake at 400 degrees in preheated over for 15 minutes. Serve hot.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

DEAR JANE:

To the Big City last week for the Thursday night Symphony, with Pierre Monteaux conducting. That delightful little roly-poly Frenchman with the black, black hair and the white, white moustache. What an artist he is!

This was the first time I had heard him conduct away from Ravinia, and I must say, our Chicago Symphony Orchestra responds exquisitely to his magic baton in both places. It makes one wish ardently to hear what he could do with his own San Francisco Symphony Orchestra.

Perhaps you might like to know what some of the music critics have said about this artist's ability. Olin Downes of the New York Times, has this to report: "Mr. Monteaux puts himself completely behind the music, publishing its beauty and genius selflessly, and like the magnificent musician that he is." Virgil Thomson, of the New York Herald-Tribune writes: "Pierre Monteaux' visit as a guest conductor of the Philharmonic has led music lovers of all the schools (the press included) to the conclusion that this conductor has drawn from our orchestra more beautiful sounds and more beautiful mixtures of sound than any other conductor in many years." Marie Davidson, of the San Francisco Call-Bulletin: "Since taking over the conducting of the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, Monteaux has molded it into one of the great orchestras of the world. Technical perfection, shades of enchanting tone color, subtlety of style — name what art you will—the San Francisco Symphony can reveal it." Claudia Cassidy, of the Chicago Tribune: "One of the great men of music. When you hear a Monteaux concert, you quickly understand the vast difference between an excited conductor and a conductor who makes music exciting."

And speaking of exciting music, I doubt if I've heard anything more stimulating than "Symphony No 2" by the contemporary Dutch composer, William Pijper, as played for the first time in Chicago last Thursday night in Orchestra Hall. Coming immediately after Beethoven's No. 2 Symphony in D Major, written principally for strings, this dynamic, stirring composition with its crashing sounds of drums, horns, piano, etc., made quite a contrast. It was as if one had suddenly awakened from a sweet, restful dream world, into the reality of contemporary life.

This symphony was composed in 1926 and given its first performance in Amsterdam under the direction of Monteaux. It was again directed by him in 1928 at a concert of the Philadelphia Orchestra. Its emotional character is suggested by a quotation from the Aeneid which appears on a fly-leaf of the score: 'Flectere si nequeo superos, Acheronta moveba' ('If I cannot influence the gods, I'll move the powers of hell').

The rest of this particular concert was devoted to the Tone Poem, "Death and Transfiguration", Opus 24, by Strauss, and Five Symphonic Etudes, based on the American Folk Song, "El-A-Noy", composed by Florian Mueller, first oboeist with the orchestra.

About this latter number, the story goes that the theme, "El-A-Noy" was drawn from Carl Sandburg's collection of American tunes and verses entitled "The American Songbag", in which it was stated that the song—as well as its title—was derived from "Illinois". The composers invited by Frederick Stock to contribute variations on the tune for the closing concert of the fiftieth season (April 17, 18, 1941) were: David Van Vactor, Arne Oldberg, Rossetter Cole, Samuel Lieberson, Leo Sowerby, Edward Collins, Florian Mueller, Albert Noelte, John Alden Carpenter, Felix Borowski, Rudolph Ganz, and Thorvald Otterstrom.

I thought it interesting that this particular work of Mr. Mueller's was written for the most part during the summer of 1941 at Ravinia, Illinois, and also at his birthplace in Bay City, Michigan. It is dedicated to Mr. Stock and is truly an American composition in all respects. The harmonies are simple ones in keeping with the character of the melodies. The last variation, Danve and Vogue, the clarient announces a figure which is reminiscent of the American barn dance, and this is repeated in the violins.

It seemed to me that this particular concert presented an especially well-balanced program, entirely pleasing, and long to be remembered.

With love, Mary.

RENT PRACTICES

This letter is written to solicit your cooperation in preventing practices that violate the Housing and Rent Act of 1947, as Amended.

Landlords frequently advertise apartments or homes for rent, definitely conditioned upon the sale to them of a new automobile, or some other scarce commodity, or upon the purchase of furniture. Prospective tenants sometime insert advertisements offering scarce commodities or to "meet terms." Such transactions mean violations of the rent law by tie-in arrangements amounting to overceiling rents.

Your assistance in helping to eliminate this type of transaction by refusing to accept such definitely conditioned advertisement will be appreciated.

VOTE TUESDAY

Election day is Tuesday, November 2! What are you going to do about it?

Records show that 15 per cent of the United States' population are for some reason or other unable to vote. Records also show that 24 million citizens of the United States eligible to vote do not go to the polls.

Perhaps you feel that one vote more or less will make little difference in the outcome of the election. Look at it this way. If one person in each 5,000 precincts failed to vote it would cause a loss of 5,000 votes. Say that 10 voters out of each of 5,000 precincts felt the same way. It would mean a loss of 50,000 votes.

Blame should not be placed on the ignorance of the masses but on those who know better and fail to educate the masses in their political rights and duties as citizens of the United States.

Plan to do your duty at the polls Tuesday and urge your next door neighbor to do the same.

Patriot,
Arlington Heights.

SPEEDING

We were interested to see the article in last weeks paper about speeding on Plum Grove road. This has been a problem for some time, not only on Plum Grove but throughout the township.

Most motorists consider that when they are out of the village they are on an open road. But during the last few years most of these "open roads" have come to be within residential areas. There are no speed laws outside of the village limits, but there are a great many children whose parents moved into the country to give them a better and a safer life.

It is easy enough to say the children should be kept at home, but it is not so easy to do. They want to "go over to Tommy's to play." Because the houses outside of town are rather far apart, Tommy is generally "down the road" or at least across it. There are no sidewalks. The children must walk along the side of the road. There are very few specified crossings. They must cross at unmarked corners.

A young (or a not so young) child, no matter how carefully trained, is careless at times. But he is still precious to someone and should be to everyone.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

by LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

The traditional landlord has a heart of stone. He is cruel, greedy, inconsiderate. He has only one interest in life, and that is his own self love.

At least that is the way he is painted, and for every renter who has a satisfactory landlord, ten can be found who have not.

But the other day a lady on my route told me about a landlord who was. He was the father of two children, and for several years had been looking for an apartment where children would be permitted without the payment of highest rent. Disheartened and bitter, he made a great decision. Somehow he begged and borrowed enough money to make a payment on an apartment building. Result — a landlord who prefers renting to folks who have children.

Which goes to show how great an educator personal experience is.

But much as I credit this man for his liberal generosity, I still have a warm spot in my heart for all landlords. They have been taking it over the barrel for many long years. They have investments in their buildings which, for the most part, represent years of hard work, shrewd investment, and often bitter experience. The margin of profits after coal bills, taxes, repairs and insurance are taken out is often small, very small and represents a meager interest rate on the money that they have tied up.

It is regrettable that small children are not wanted as tenants. They have to live too, of course. Anything which may influence a decline in the birth rate is bad for any country, and restrictions on children in apartments is such an influence. A nation with a declining birth rate is much in the same position as an individual who has passed the prime of life — on the road to physical oblivion.

But the children in apartment buildings are as noisy, mischievous and full of boundless energy often directed toward destruction as children who live in private homes — perhaps more so. Their boisterous shouts of glee, or the heartbreaking sobs and angry wails of infants at night are bound to upset the oldsters who want peace and quiet in their declining years.

So — why not apartment buildings restricted to families with children? They could be plainer, but sturderier in order to stand up under much abuse. Equipped with a gymnasium and nurseries, they would never lack tenants.

'member when...

by JUNE McDONALD

'Member when Hallowe'en parties were really Hallowe'en parties, rather than poor excuses for "beer busts"?

We drank apple cider—ate doughnuts—and ducked for apples—looked into the mirror in candlelight each Hallowe'en to see the reflection of our future husbands and wives—played spin the platter, etc—and still had FUN!!!

A top-buggy was placed on the roof of the old livery stable which stood where the coal yard is now located on Northwest Highway, Arlington Heights on a certain Hallowe'en several years ago—how it remained there, perched like a bird, until one windy night it was blown down onto the highway—landing upright.....how people spoke of the phenomenon for weeks?

The inevitable injured arm or leg that one of the gang always suffered following an evening of Hallowe'en pranks?

Women had what was known as the "hour glass" figure—the middies and bloomers for sports wear—the heavy, old-fashioned iron one set on the stove to heat—we ironed our silk stockings to make them shine?

We used heavy sugar water to make our hair-bows stiff and new looking after laundering—"corset covers"—the 8 inch lace mother crocheted for the hem of our best slips?

A recent letter received reads as follows:

We get a great deal of pleasure in going over many of the old remarks, even though I feel age growing on me every minute. Don't forget the old wooden sidewalks and baby carriages. How the wheels of the clumsy carriage, our high heels, and children's tiny feet became caught in the spaces or cracks between the boards.

'Member when we were kids how all six of us gathered around mama on the front stoop, one on her shoulders, another on her knee and she shaking the baby carriage back and forth? Mama would look to the heavens and see a cloud passing over the moon and hiding its glow. Then she would say, "Oh, my, just look, the moon must have been bad." All attention would center on the moon and she would recite:

Oh moon, have you done something wrong in heaven,
That God has hidden your face?
I hope if you have, you will soon be forgiven
And shine again in your place.

When the cloud had passed and the moon was full again, it was time for bed.

Nina.

Perhaps you have pleasant memories you recall. Why not send them in? This column belongs to you—why not participate?

It Happened Here...

On the table lies a small bundle of note books, a dozen in number; these are account books kept by a village storekeeper, covering the years between 1859 — 1865, all the period of the Civil War, which makes them very interesting documents today. Prices, even war time prices, were so reasonable as to stagger us now; sugar and flour were sold by the barrel, and as in all village stores, there was a frequent sale of cheese, crackers and candy - a nickel's worth of candy noted on nearly every page. Was it, we wonder, hoarhound sticks and peppermint drops? There was also a constant sale of kerosene, lamp wicks and chimneys, but that's not strange; a generation later, kerosene lamps were the sole means of illumination in our village. During the Civil War period, women bought yardage goods under the names of linsey, jean, holland, denim and hickory; ask for them under these names, now! All but one may be found in the dictionary, hickory is not there but it was a word in good standing in our youth and any one who ever wore or laundered a hickory shirt will not forget it so long as there is memory. In 1861 we note that the village store keeper took subscriptions for Harper's Magazine, the Chicago Tribune, and the Prairie Farmer from A. MacArthur. There is still a Harper's and a Prairie Farmer and a Chicago Tribune and a MacArthur!

S'Amuser.

Food prices down 1% but other costs up 1½%

Consumer prices in Chicago went up three tenths of one per cent between August 15 and September 15, according to a report issued last Sunday by the bureau of labor statistics.

The survey also shows that, for the second month in a row, Chicago retail food prices dropped.

The drop in food prices — a drop of one per cent—is offset by a one and a half per cent boost in clothing costs, as well as other increases in rents, fuel, theater tickets, haircuts, and cigarettes.

Q. What are the expenses of the bridegroom for a wedding?

A. A wedding ring, marriage license, ties, gloves, and boutonnieres for his ushers and best man, the minister's fee, transportation for his family and his attendants to the church, and the honeymoon trip.

Q. Is it necessary that a host or hostess introduce a man to his dinner partner?

A. Yes; and also, if possible, see that he is acquainted with the woman who is to sit on the other side of him.

Q. Should baked potatoes be buttered with the knife or fork?

A. With the fork.

Q. Is it correct to repeat each name when making introductions, such as, "Mr. Smith, this is Mr. Jones, Mr. Jones, Mr. Smith"?

A. No; this is not necessary, and a repetition of this kind is usually tiresome.

Q. Who makes the announcement, if a party is given for the purpose of announcing an engagement?

A. The girl herself, or her mother may tell the guests; or if it is a dinner, it may be told by the father.

Q. How far from the edge of the table should the knives and forks be placed?

A. About an inch from the edge of the table..

Q. Is it all right for the bridegroom and his family to send out some of the wedding announcements?

A. No; all announcements and invitations are sent by the parents of the bride, and of course, the bridegroom is consulted when compiling the list.

Q. Is it proper to cut lettuce or any other salads with the knife?

A. No, not usually. Use the fork as much as possible, but if the lettuce is too tough to cut with the fork, then it is all right to use the knife.

Q. Should the woman's name always be mentioned first when introducing a man and a woman?

A. Yes, such as, "Miss Martin, this is Mr. Jones," or, "Miss Martin, Mr. Jones."

Q. Is it all right for a woman to propose toasts at a wedding reception, or some such affair?

A. No.

Q. Should a dinner napkin be entirely unfolded when used?

A. One fold should be left in the napkin.

167 skaters, 27 acts in new Ice Follies

Heralded as the finest edition of the thirteen in the Shipstads and Johnson series, Ice Follies of 1949 opened October 21 at the Chicago arena. Here direct from its world premiere in Hollywood, Ice Follies is being presented nightly through November 14. A matinee is scheduled each Saturday and Sunday of the engagement.

Built around a cast of 167 expert skaters, the first of all the elaborate traveling, ice shows comprises 27 acts and sequences that embrace the shield of championship figure skating, spectacle, pageantry and hilarious comedy.

Heading the long list of stars is Roy Shipstad, the world's smoothest skater. Also in the all-star cast are Frick and Frack, Harris Legg, Mae Ross, Schalow and Hendrickson, the Scotvold Twins, the Schramm Twins, Rasmussen and Cameron, Monica Moran, Hamilton and Morrison, Ericsen and Mulvey and a host of others.

New faces in the Ice Follies cast this year include the spectacular acrobatic and adagio team, Narena and Norris, and Marilyn Ruth Take, who comes to the Ice Follies direct from competition in the winter Olympics in January at St. Moritz, Switzerland, and was a teammate on the Canadian team of Barbara Ann Scott, world's champion.

Sugar beet tops

Farmers who have livestock and who are growing sugar beets are missing a good bet if they are not feeding their beet tops, advises the Farmers and Manufacturers Beet Sugar association.

The tops have as much digestible nutrient, acre for acre, as one cutting of good-quality alfalfa hay, the Association states. Compared to corn, beat tops have the per-acre feeding value of 13 bushels of the former feed, the association also points out.

LAW on the FARM

The powers and duties of weed commissioners

Illinois law provides that some competent person, to be known as "commissioner of noxious weeds" may be appointed in each township or road district in counties that have not appointed a county weed control commissioner. He is appointed by the board of town auditors in counties under township organization and by the county commissioners in commission counties. His term is two years, and he is entitled to a maxium of six dollars for each full day of work spent in discharging his duties.

His duties as prescribed by law are as follows:

1. To inquire about the introduction and existence of noxious weeds in his area. (Noxious weeds are defined by law as Canada thistles, perennial sow thistle, European bindweed, leafy spurge, Russian knapweed and hoary cress.)

2. To take charge of any such weeds when found and see that they do not go to seed or otherwise spread.

3. To carefully seek and learn the best methods of control and destruction.

4. To persistently apply the best remedy or treatment in proper time.

5. To notify the owner or occupant of land on which noxious weeds are found, and inform him of the best means of treating and eradicating. This notice is required to be in writing.

6. To enter upon land and destroy noxious weeds when the owner fails to do so.

7. To complain to proper authrities of any violations of laws regarding the destruction of noxious weeds.

8. To make an annual report before December 1, as required by law, on forms supplied by the State Department of Agriculture. These reports enable the department to keep up to date on the location, extent, and spread of noxious weeds in the state.

9. If requested by the board or commissioners, to sue for any penalities which the county board or county commissioners may have established.

County weed control commissioners, when appointed, supersede township or road district weed commissioners and have the same powers and duties. When needed, assistants may be provided for either township or county weed commissioners. Also, within the limits set by law, the county and township may appropriate money for the destruction of noxious weeds.

The laws referred to are in the Illinois Revised Statutes, Chapter 18.

Thinner purse seen for farmers in '48

Farmers' pocketbooks may be a little thinner next year than they have been in 1948.

This prediction, now being made by Agriculture Department experts, may seem to run counter to our statement two weeks ago that a fairly stable demand for farm products is expected next year.

Rising production costs explain the apparent contradiction Almost every type of farm expense is higher this year. Total expenses will probably be up seven per cent. As a result, net farm income may drop eight per cent below last year.

In 1949, farmers' cash receipts and gross income will stay near current levels — about 30 billion dollars. However, higher taxes, labor, interest payments and other expenses could easily drag net income down for the second year in a row.

There will also continue to be many farmers who realize incomes far below the national "average," officials point out.

Experts are agreed on one thing: net farm income has probably passed its peak.

Urge long-range farm program with variable supports, parity formula

Farmers are anxious to exert their influence in the direction of an expanding economy. They want this expansion to be brought about by means of the free, competitive enterprise system. With this in mind, the American Farm Bureau Federation aggressively supported Senator Aiken and his colleagues on the Senate Agricultural Committee in their efforts—conducted on a bipartisan basis—to enact into law a long-range farm program with variable price supports and a modernized parity formula.

Farm price supports have helped the consumers of food because they have assisted in getting the production of a third more food than in pre-war days. We would have had really high food prices if farmers had produced only at pre-war levels.

Consumers complain about high farm prices. What they mean is high retail food prices, and they are thinking primarily of meat. Meat is high, principally because people are eating so much of it. This year's per capita consumption is estimated at 15 per cent above pre-war. Increased demand has driven prices up.

WHEAT, POTATO, and egg price supports are the only ones in use at the moment. If farmers gave away their total production of these commodities to the processors and distributors, the consumer's food bill would be reduced less than five per cent. This fact reflects the high cost of processing and distribution. The fact that wheat prices have dropped a dollar a bushel, while bread prices have gone up, dramatizes this point.

When will meat prices fall? After we have the opportunity to convert this year's huge feed crop into meat. That can't be done quickly, as it must be accomplished by the slow processes of biology. And we have to reduce current supplies in order to have more next year. For example, we have to save breeding stock out of this year's hog crop in order to have more pigs to fatten next year. We have to keep feeding stock to make it heavier.

People should not forget that, basically, food costs are high because everything else is high. They are all a part of the inflation that has engulfed our entire economy as a result of fighting a war and creating a national debt of some 253 billion dollars.

FARMERS are willing and anxious to do their part in a national program of abundant production. Big production of goods and services by all groups will be the ultimate solution of the inflation problem. Farmers want to produce enough food and fiber to meet all effective demand, and they want all other segments of the economy to do likewise.

We hear a good deal about the increase of income that farmers have enjoyed. The fact is, that farm income is not out of line with income of other groups. Per capita income of people on farms this year is estimated by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics at around $700, while nonfarm people will have an average of around $1600. Farmers have done well, but not better than many other groups have done. Their costs of production this year will exceed by a considerable margin the highest cash income ever received by them in any year prior to 1943. With farm costs having the habit of remaining relatively fixed, the present situation presents to farmers an ominous warning of things to come.

'Price support" prices are not fair farm prices. They are not intended to be. Instead, they are the farmer's insurance that if he works hard and is truly productive, his own efforts won't bankrupt him.

RE-ELECT DWIGHT H. GREEN A GOOD GOVERNOR

For A Greater Illinois . . .

No governor has done more for the people of Illinois in every walk of life and added more to the dignity of the state than Dwight H. Green. He has truly been a good Governor —a Governor who has accomplished great things.

CHICAGO AND COOK COUNTY under Governor Green have obtained full and fair representation in Congress under the first Congressional reapportionment since 1901, unification and public ownership of the traction system, state aid in the construction of superhighways and airports, a centralized State office building, and a practical state housing plan under which private enterprise has started to rebuild the city's slums.

GOVERNOR GREEN has balanced the state budget, reduced the sales tax from three to two cents, and practiced strict economy everywhere. His record includes:

FOR WORKERS he has approved more legislation favorable to labor than any other governor; acted as a bulwark against anti-labor legislation of any kind.

FOR VETERANS he sponsored the nation's most liberal bonus. His administration established the first Veterans' Commission in the country for personal service on veterans' problems and is carrying out a rehabilitation program which is restoring thousands of veterans to productive life.

FOR EVERYBODY—State aid to public schools increased to almost three times the amount provided in 1939 . . . new buildings at the University of Illinois and state colleges, including branch of the University at Navy Pier . . . old age and blind pensions increased and aid to dependent children established . . . new buildings provided for state hospitals and state tuberculosis hospitals authorized for Chicago and downstate.

The record of Governor Dwight H. Green in service to ALL the people of Illinois has never been equalled. It is a record of sound administration and lasting accomplishments.

Illinois grain

Illinois Grain Terminals company, an affiliate of the Illinois Agricultural association, has purchased from the Chicago and Rock Island railroad, approximately 11½ acres of land on the Calumet river at 106th street, according to an announcement made today by Charles B. Shuman, association president.

Farm organization questions advisability of TB election

In view of the almost certain assurance that the State of Illinois is taking over the tuberculosis problem in human beings, the two Cook county farm organizations, the Farm Bureau and Truck Gardeners asosciation, have pointed out that the $6,000,000 in bonds to be voted at this election forming a district in rural Cook county, is probably ill advised. Should the state take this over, then rural Cook county people will be supporting two duplicating services. A budget of $1,400,000 has been set up for this district and because of lack of personnel, quarters, and program the organizations requested that this be reduced. However, it was not.

It is pointed out that during the past years tuberculosis is down the list as a killer from fatal diseases. It is believed that understanding of the disease, eradication of tuberculosis in dairy herds, and sanitary living is controlling tuberculosis. People living longer and old people are more subject to the infection than younger people with the exception of ages 30 to 40 where the incidents are rather high.

People are living much longer and for this reason we believe that since tuberculosis is going down the list as a fatal disease that the incidents at the 30-year level must be a great deal lower than it was several years back.

In the state program hospitals are to be built in the city of Chicago. Under the bond issue hospitals are to be built in Cook county. This will give us a rather large proportion of hospitalization in case the bond does carry.

FARM BUREAU and Truck Gardeners Association do not wish to go on record as opposed to the control of tuberculosis or any other disease. We do believe that there are other diseases such as cancer that might merit more hospitalization than tuberculosis. It is also our opinion that Cook county in particular must begin to give some attention to the ability of the county to meet its tax obligations with thousands of people coming out into the county in increasing numbers.

School buildings are going to be erected in the not too distant future which is going to add heavily to our tax load. It is not at all certain that the income of our county population is going to stay at the level that it is at the present time, and it is probable that at some not too distant date we will again run into a tax strike and failure to pay taxes. This would not only imperil the county government, but at the same time it would place a number of these projects that are promoted during inflation times from being properly manned and managed.

These organizations point out that it is not at all difficult to think of many services that the populace would like to have, but which are beyond the physical means to be supported just now. We are living well and are flush and we have more government services for our citizens than at any time in the history of any country. Bond issue cannot be piled on top of bond issue and expect tax payers to carry the load. Therefore, these two organizations wish to point out that this bond issue and this T. B. District will, unquestionably, add 10c tax per $100 valuation for twenty years, if this bond issue is passed. Neither organization is advising people how to vote but they do believe that conservatism at this time will keep Cook county solvent at a later time.

4-H boy and girl winners to feast

Donald and Edwin Linneman, Arlington Heights, Jeanne Dettman, Des Plaines, Shirley Landwehr, Palatine, and George Heimann of Roselle along with 80 other 4-H Club boys and girls from 21 northern Illinois counties — all winners in this year's "better methods" activity — will be honored by business leaders and national 4-H officials Saturday, Oct. 30, in Chicago at a special 4-H "achievement" day.

Climax of the all-day, all-expense tour to the city will be a Palmer House banquet Saturday noon at which the young farmers and farmerettes, who have excelled in their projects to find better methods to ease farm burdens, will be awarded their prizes.

The 4-H'rs, their county farm and home advisers, and national and local 4-H officials will be guests of the Public Service Co. of Northern Illinois, Western United Gas and Electric Company, and Illinois Northern Utilities Co., co-sponsors of the 1948 better methods program.

Before and after the luncheon, the boys and girls will be taken on conducted tours of the Board of Trade, the Museum of Science and Industry, and other points of interest of their own choosing.

Farm surpluses foreseen in 1950

Farmers may face serious, price-depressing surpluses within the next two or three years, according to Department of Agriculture officials.

This discouraging prediction was made last week at the Department's annual outlook conference with federal and state officials. At the meeting, officials attempted to chart the outlook from -now until 1954.

They agreed (as this column has recently reported) that next year will be a fairly good one for farmers, although demand may drop slightly in the latter half. From then on, the going will be tougher.

Between 1950 and 1954, say the experts, dwindling foreign demands, together with slightly lower purchasing power here at home, will probably cause really bad surpluses in such commodities as wheat and cotton. Prices are expected to drop. Marketing quotas may be needed.

FOR CERTAIN other commodities, such as livestock products, the "intermediate" outlook is much more optimistic. Demand for these will continue relatively high.

Larger population here and abroad will keep consumption above prewar levels for most commodities, the department believes. However, only price supports will prevent serious price drops for farmers.

As one official expressed it to this writer: "The new permanent price support law, passed by Congress last June, will be the farmer's only like against a flood of bankruptcy and depression." AFBF fought to secure passage of the Aiken Bill.

The above predictions are based on the fairly optimistic assumptions of (1) a stable peace, and (2) continuing large-scale employment.

Set goal of 100M new farm record books for 1949

A goal of 100,000 new, simplified Illinois farm record books in use during 1949 has been set by the University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

"With help from local organizations and leaders, we would need more than 100,000 books each year to supply the demand," declares George B. Whitman, agricultural extension farm management specialist at Urbana, who heads the state-wide project.

The Illinois farm record book is replacing the old farm account book, Whitman explained. The change-over was made last year in 57 northern and central Illinois counties where 30,000 farmers used the new farm record book for the first time.

IN MCST of the 42 southern Illinois counties, the new farm record book is being introduced for the first time this fall for use during 1949. A few books were requested by farmers in some southern counties last year.

In northern Illinois, the farm record book will not replace the Farm Bureau Farm Management Service record books, Whitman emphasized. The 2,600 farmers who now keep these records will continue as they always have.

The new farm record book is an effort to help more farmers keep simple, accurate records, Whitman said. The book, costing only 45 cents, comes in two parts. The first part provides a daily record of income and expenses for all farm products. The second part provides for six-year continuous records for inventories and depreciation.

"If you keep this amazingly simple account book as you go along through the year, it will record all you need to fill out your farm income tax report." according to the December 1947 I. A. A. Record.

IN ADDITION, the Illinois farm record book furnishes simple and accurate records for credit statements, and you can find the weak and strong points in your own farm business by studying the record book.

Whitman and four assistants are holding meetings in every county this fall to help local leaders make plans for distributing 100,000 books late this year for use in 1949. In the 57 northern counties, they will also train local leaders in completing the books in use this year. The leaders in turn will relay this information to farmers in their county in a series of meetings late in 1948.

Journal of a Bird Watcher

This November 4th (1947) is the first day of the duck hunting season. Took a turn through the Barrington area to look over the situation before shooting started. Baker Lake—the slough—held mostly coot, about a thousand altogether, and quite a few grebe, teal and a few mallard. These birds were keeping to the west side of the lake away from the blinds. The lake at the Eustice Estate held about fifteen hundred birds principally pintail, black and mallard ducks. I was driving by Otis Lake when the first shots were fired at noon. About five hundred ducks flew up in ever widening circles and changing flight patterns, while the coots just skittered across the water, each kicking up his own silver wake. Saw only one duck fall from on high.

Read where some authority says that although shooting restrictions have made the individual bag limits very small, the over-all kill is really much more than fifty years ago or so when market hunters went out and shot birds by the barrel full. Figures also show that the more hunters are licensed to kill ducks, the fewer the duck population. This is logical but disquieting. The corollary to this is that in order to increase the duck population, we should decrease the hunter population.

Nov. 6th—On the way to the Heights I saw four red-tailed hawks together on the edge of the Elk Grove preserve and later in the day a couple of more,—first evidence of a migrational wave of wintering hawks. These big round-winged hawks are commonly called "chickenhawks." Although their slow-soaring flight over stubble fields far from any chick coop should disabuse any observant person that their mind is on chickens.

They are the original automatic, self-setting mouse traps. The hawks that might catch chickens are much less common, smaller as a rule, and very fast, being geared to pursue birds in flight and not mice that creep.

Nov. 7th—First real cold blustery weather of the year. Saw a flock of geese flying over the business section of Arlington Heights, and a fast high flying flock of ducks blown with the wind like a wisp of smoke. Also spotted the first Lapland longspur of the season. There were about twenty-five of them walking in a plowed field. These are grayish, sparrowy-looking birds with a black and white pattern on their tails which show in flight. Their call is something like that of a goldfinch and they fly up like leaves in the wind.

Nov. 9th—The boys and I went up into the Elk Grove preserve to measure their paces for First Class Scout map making. Saw in the woods a large mixed flock of myrtle warblers and kinglets.

Nov. 11th—Drove up to Barrington today, the first day of pheasant season. Saw more hunters than pheasants. One field contained seven hunters and a dog. Wondered who or what would have been hit if a pheasant had flown up.

Nov. 12—Last flocks of redwings flying through — some flocks numbering in the thousands. Saw a belated brown thrasher in Arlington Heights.

Nov. 23rd-26th—Four inches of snow has fallen and stayed on the ground. Temperature ranges around 15-32 degrees. Winter is early this year. Only one cardinal and a few bluejays use our feeder and one downy woodpecker the suet stick so far. The starlings are busy with pears still hanging on the trees.

Nov. 30th—Temperature dropped to 10 degrees this early A. M. Rockford, Illinois reports 23 degrees—coldest spot in the U. S.! Many people ate cold turkey that evening!

Two billion acres — less than one half of the area now under cultivation - could produce enough food to fed everyone on earth if proper agricultural methods were used, according to the English scientist, J. D. Bernal.

COOK COUNTY DELINQUENT TAX LIST

Advertisement and Notice of Collector of Cook County of Application for Sale of Delinquent Lands and Lots for General Taxes for the year 1947, and Notice of Sale Thereof and application for judgment, fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest and for order for sale on such payments, as provided by law.

OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER OF COOK COUNTY AND EX-OFFICIO COUNTY COLLECTOR OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

Wheeling Township,
October 28, 1948

NOTICE is hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Court of Cook County, on the 8th day of November, A. D. 1948, for judgment against lands and lots hereinafter described as being delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, or personal property taxes charged thereon as noted in this advertisement, remain due and unpaid, for said taxes, interest and costs, and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law (excepting from said judgment and order of sale the cases which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former unexecuted judgments and order of sale as may be noted in this advertisement).

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

Notice is further herein and hereby given that on the Second Monday next succeeding the 8th day of November, A. D. 1948, to-wit, the 22nd day of November, A. D. 1948, at the hour of 8 o'clock A. M. all said lands and lots hereinbefore described for sale of which an order shall be made or have heretofore been made and not executed as noted, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County, where the County Court is held in said County for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon, respectively.

The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately advertised) and the year or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lot is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE — In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and the "cts" (meaning cents) represent the taxes due and unpaid for the year A. D. 1947. Where the letter "F" is placed to the left of the figures in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "forfeiture" and denotes that the amounts set down to the right of the same are the amounts due and unpaid on said lands and lots for which said lands and lots have been previously forfeited to the State. When back taxes are extended they are indicated by the letters "B. T."

PAYMENTS OF TAXES, MADE AFTER PRINTERS COPIES ARE SENT TO PUBLISHERS FOR LISTING AND APPEAR AS DELINQUENT IN THIS ADVERTISEMENT, WILL BE SATISFIED IN JUDGMENT RECORDS BEFORE SALE.

Where no description of property (either land, lot, block or portion thereof) appears in said list to the left of and opposite the figures in said column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and "cts" (meaning cents) said figures relate to the land, lot, block or portion thereof last above described, appearing to the left of the opposite said "$" and "cts" column. "Name" in the words "name" where used in the list means name of the owner of said delinquent lands or lots, "desc" in said words means description of said lands or lots.

COOK COUNTY DELINQUENT TAX LIST

Advertisement and Notice of Collector of Cook County of Application for Sale of Delinquent Lands and Lots for General Taxes for the year 1947, and Notice of Sale Thereof and application for judgment, fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest and for order for sale on such payments, as provided by law.

OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER OF COOK COUNTY AND EX-OFFICIO COUNTY COLLECTOR OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

Elk Grove Township,
October 28, 1948

NOTICE is hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Court of Cook County, on the 8th day of November, A. D. 1948, for judgment against lands and lots hereinafter described as being delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, or personal property taxes charged thereon as noted in this advertisement, remain due and unpaid, for said taxes, interest and costs, and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law (excepting from said judgment and order of sale the cases which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former unexecuted judgments and order of sale as may be noted in this advertisement).

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

Notice is further herein and hereby given that on the Second Monday next succeeding the 8th day of November, A. D. 1948, to-wit, the 22nd day of November, A. D. 1948, at the hour of 8 o'clock A. M. all said lands and lots hereinbefore described for sale of which an order shall be made or have heretofore been made and not executed as noted, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County, where the County Court is held in said County for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon, respectively.

The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately advertised) and the year or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lot is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE — In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and the "cts" (meaning cents) represent the taxes due and unpaid for the year A. D. 1947. Where the letter "F" is placed to the left of the figures in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "forfeiture" and denotes that the amounts set down to the right of the same are the amounts due and unpaid on said lands and lots for which said lands and lots have been previously forfeited to the State. When back taxes are extended they are indicated by the letters "B. T."

PAYMENTS OF TAXES, MADE AFTER PRINTERS COPIES ARE SENT TO PUBLISHERS FOR LISTING AND APPEAR AS DELINQUENT IN THIS ADVERTISEMENT, WILL BE SATISFIED IN JUDGMENT RECORDS BEFORE SALE.

Where no description of property (either land, lot, block or portion thereof) appears in said list to the left of and opposite the figures in said column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and "cts" (meaning cents) said figures relate to the land, lot, block or portion thereof last above described, appearing to the left of the opposite said "$" and "cts" column. "Name" in the words "name" where used in the list means name of the owner of said delinquent lands or lots, "desc" in said words means description of said lands or lots.
